HUMAN RIGHTS / RACE RELATIONS COMMITTEE

Self-Identification Form

Canada Employment and Immigration Union
Syndicat de l'Emploi et de l'Immigration du Canada

The Human Rights/Race Relations Committee of CEIU has a broad mandate to advance issues of human rights and race relations within the workplace, the union, and society at large. The committee draws its members from the four equity groups within our union:

- First Nations / Métis / Inuit
- Members with Disabilities
- Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Persons
- Racially Visible

IMPORTANT NOTE: The self-identification options used in this form attempts to reflect current terminology as much as possible while abiding by the language contained within the CEIU By-laws and Regulations. There is no intent to exclude or marginalize any member of any community, including the gender and sexually diverse community.

We respect your privacy. The information you provide is considered confidential and will be used solely for the purposes set out in this form.

This self-identification form has three purposes. It allows equity members to receive information about the committee's initiatives from CEIU's national office, to participate in the committee's activities and to vote in the election of CEIU's National Vice-President for Human Rights.

Please note: To self-identify with the CEIU HR/RR Committee you must complete this form even if you have self-identified with the PSAC or the employer.
