Selection of a Liberal Democrat Police and Crime Commissioner Candidate for Cambridgeshire and Peterborough

Following the issue of an advertisement seeking applications for this position, the Shortlisting Committee have decided to invite members to choose a candidate to contest next year's Police and Crime Commissioner election.

Here's all that you need to know in order to take part in the vote.

Who can vote?

To vote in this selection, you must be a party member at the cut-off date for qualification (14 December 2018) and be 10 years of age or older.

If you are due to renew your membership but have not yet done so, you are advised to do so as soon as possible to guarantee your right to vote.

If you are unsure of your renewal date you should contact the Returning Officer who can advise you. If you wish to renew but no longer have the paperwork to renew your subscription, you can contact our HQ membership department who will assist you or renew online at www.libdems.org.uk .

In case of any queries, please contact the Returning Officer.

How & where can I vote?

A ballot paper is enclosed with this mailing – no ballot papers will be issued at the members' meetings (details enclosed).

Members will be able to vote during the meetings or ballots should be sent to the Returning Officer. The counting of votes will take place at the end of the second meeting, in March on 1st March.

Abiding by the Rules

The Rules governing this selection process have been prepared by the English Candidates' Committee of the Liberal Democrats and is under the control of the Returning Officer, Mark Valladares.

In the interests of fairness to all applicants and party members, it is important that everyone involved in the selection abides by these Rules, which have been designed to ensure that applicants are given an equal opportunity in the selection.

In the run-up to the members' meeting, members should note that, if you wish to take any action on behalf of one or all the applicants, you should check with the applicant that you may do it before proceeding. You are reminded that candidates are responsible for the actions of their supporters during a campaign, so reading the Rules is advised.

The Applicants

The list of applicants is as follows (in alphabetical order by surname);

- Rupert Moss-Eccardt
- Lucy Nethsingha

A manifesto, as supplied by each candidate, is enclosed for your consideration.

Members may be contacted individually as applicants are encouraged to canvass members for their support. If this is a problem, please contact the Returning Officer.

Please help the Party to make the best choice for future success by taking part in this important selection.

Mark Valladares
Returning Officer
