

Global Ministries Weekly Update

December 17, 2014

Connect

Donate

This will be the last weekly update for 2014 - New weekly prayers will be posted here on Mondays

Advent and an Improvised Wreath

The beauty of Global Ministries lies in the relationships that have been cultivated over years and decades. As a Global Mission Intern, I have been privileged to witness a spectrum of partnerships and rejoice in the diversity that Global Ministries so values...Keep Reading

Pray with the People of Indonesia on Sunday, December 21st

God of justice, God of mercy, we praise you for the miracle of hope born first in Mary's heart, and echoed in the hearts of millions of young women in Indonesia and other parts of the world, who are often treated as just another commodity to be bought and sold...Keep Reading

I Want to Be More like Jhonatan

I want to be more like Jhonatan .He just took on the Colombian Armed Forces and won. He used only nonviolence grounded in faith. He didn't seek to take on the Colombian Army - they picked a fight with him. He just sought to keep the faith...Keep Reading

Life with Dignity: Kairos Palestine 5th Anniversary

From December 2–4, 2014, over 250 participants from Palestine and many other countries* gathered in Bethlehem to commemorate the 5th anniversary of “A Moment of Truth”...Keep Reading

Latest Update! - News from Kim and Erik Free serving in Mozambique

We are All Ayotzinapa - Partner Statement on Missing Students

Advent: A Perfect Time for Seeking Peace - Christ came in order to help heal our broken world. A world that, for many, remains unjust.

More ways to connect:

Global Worship Resources

Mission Personnel Blogs

The Congo Initiative

Missionary Visits

Privacy Policy | Manage Subscription | View as Web Page

Global Ministries
P.O. Box 1986
Indianapolis, IN 46206