

Prayer for Student Debt Justice

Depending on your faith tradition and the way your community organizes worship you can use the following to pray alongside communities across the country. Please feel free to incorporate the below prayer or alter it where it best fits in your weekend service. In each of your communities you can find the most appropriate place to come together in worship around this important issue.

If appropriate, first introduce to the community the realities at hand:

On July 1, student loan interest rates are set to double for almost 7 million college students unless Congress takes action. High-interest rates increase debts making them unpayable and preventing our communities from recovering in these hard economic times. These rate increases will harm the affordability and accessibility to education for students around the country. We must support young people here in the United States to develop into their full potential and prevent them from being stuck in cycles of debt.

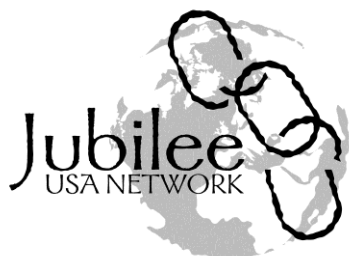

Interfaith prayer:

We pray for students who are our future, may they not be burdened with unjust and unsustainable debts as they seek to expand their knowledge and prepare to take up the responsibilities as tomorrow's leaders.

We pray for those who currently struggle with student loan payments, and those who may struggle in the future.

We pray for the Members of Congress who must make difficult decisions in hard economic times, that they will support and maintain student loan affordability and help to make a more fair and just future.

We pray that Congress will act in a way that supports students and broader social equity and justice across our communities.

Jubilee USA Network is an interfaith network which has won over $130 billion in debt relief to benefit the world's poorest people. Jubilee USA is taking action because we believe students are our future and we recognize that in these times we must make connections between unjust loans that hurt our local and global communities.
