Faith Tabladillo

From Edmonton, AB

Faith Tabladillo is currently a Communications Studies student at MacEwan University. She is passionate about policies that focus on community, transparent communication, and creating practical solutions to local challenges, which other parties lack.

Her experience consists of research, advocacy, and civic engagement from her role as a Federal Election Organizer with the Canadian Federation of Students, to conducting poverty research at Dickinsfield Amity House for summer work. She currently contributes to the community through outreach and communications.

As a former member of the City of Edmonton Youth Council and the Edmonton Community Foundation's Grants Committee, Faith develops a strong commitment to empowering youth participation in policy and community development. She is eager to support the growth of the Alberta Party through balanced, strategic governance rooted in transparency, compassion, and innovation.

Hi Alberta Party Team,

I'm writing not only to apply for the board role, but also to express my interest in contributing to the Alberta Party in any way I can. Since the formation of the UCP through the merger of two conservative parties, I've recognized the potential and momentum of the Alberta Party. I've also observed areas where the party can continue to grow, particularly in strengthening governance and developing policies that better serve the general public. I understand that rebuilding momentum requires dedication, collaboration, and vision, and I'm eager to help create a platform for Albertans who want a strong, responsible government that protects people's rights and access to essential resources.
