RE: Alberta Party Board Nomination

TO: Nomination Committee Members

Dear Committee Members,

I am writing to express my interest in serving on the Alberta Party Board. The upcoming provincial election represents a defining moment for Alberta's future, and I am eager to help position the Alberta Party as a pragmatic, solutions-focused alternative that champions fiscal responsibility, social inclusion, and collaborative governance.

My background includes extensive experience in Alberta's construction industry, leadership roles in supervision and project management, and a decade of service with a rural volunteer fire department. Currently, I contribute to shaping industry standards as a member of the Alberta Industry and Training Electrical Apprenticeship Education Review Committee. These experiences have strengthened my ability to lead with integrity, build consensus, and engage communities effectively.

If elected, I will focus on strengthening member participation, promoting transparent governance, and advancing policies that unite rather than divide. I believe these priorities reflect the Alberta Party's commitment to inclusive and forward-thinking leadership.

Thank you for considering my nomination. I would be honored to contribute to the success of our party and its vision for Alberta.

Sincerely,

Chris Marshall

Chris Marshall
Estimating Manager, Northgate Industries

Chris Marshall, a lifelong Albertan, has built a career of leadership in Alberta's construction industry. Currently serving as Estimating Manager at Northgate Industries, he has held supervisory and project management roles throughout his career, bringing a practical, solutions-focused approach to complex challenges.

Beyond his professional work, Chris has a strong record of community service. He volunteered for a decade with a rural fire department and now contributes to shaping industry standards as a member of the Alberta Industry and Training Electrical Apprenticeship Education Review Committee. These experiences reflect his commitment to collaboration, safety, and education.

Chris and his wife, Keltie, share a passion for advocacy and family. Together, they have built a large, blended family and are proud grandparents of two. Chris believes in transparent governance, member engagement, and policies that unite rather than divide—values that align with the Alberta Party's vision for inclusive, forward-thinking leadership.
