Calgary Hays

As a long time Alberta Progressive Conservative, I was extremely uncomfortable with the direction the Wildrose and its leaders were taking the combined party. I investigated a number of parties and quickly joined the Alberta Party. I was labeled a Red Tory, now known as a Centrist. Like many, I felt I did not have a home in any of the existing parties. Since joining the Alberta Party I have door knocked for former Leader of the Alberta Party - Barry in Medicine Hat, and acted as the Chief Financial Officer for Calgary Hays.

My career has been in the Human Resources side of Mergers and Acquisitions in the Oil and Gas Industry and culminated with Management Consulting and finally as a Business Unit Leader and Chief Financial Officer at the National Energy Board. My strength is in Project Management and getting things done. Discussions can only take you so far, then you need to get results!!
