Animals participate in all the richness that life has to offer, just like we do.

They experience a range of emotions, feel comfort and pain, and form strong bonds and relationships with others. And just like us, animals deserve to live a life free from suffering and exploitation.

But when it comes to political decision making, animals are left behind by the major parties.

The Animal Justice Party is standing up for animals because they cannot stand up for themselves. We're creating a world where animals are treated with compassion and respect.

Every living creature deserves love, respect, care and comfort, including human beings.

For too long, the major parties have prioritised themselves and their pockets over the needs of the public. We believe in an Australia where communities have an equal say in the way our society is run, while respecting all other living creatures and the planet we call home.

The Animal Justice Party will support people to exercise their rights, enjoy their lives and work, rest and play with their community of loved ones and animals on our beautiful planet.

There is no planet B, and only one planet we call home. We must protect it for the health and wellbeing of animals, communities and ourselves.

We have seen government mismanagement of our natural environment at every level; Australians are frustrated by the lack of action to protect the planet. We are committed to taking bold action to protect all animals who call this planet home, and the time to act is now.
