FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT, 1991
YOUR RIGHTS TO REVIEW AND APPEAL

1. INTERNAL REVIEW

If you are dissatisfied or "aggrieved" with certain decisions or "determinations" of an agency/council/university (regarding access to documents or amendment of records), under S.29 and S.38 of the Freedom of Information Act (SA), 1991, you can apply to the agency/council/university concerned for an internal review of its determination.

To apply for an internal review of a determination you must write a letter addressed to the Principal Officer or lodge an internal review application form with the same agency/council/university as made the determination. This also must be addressed to the Principal Officer. The application must be accompanied by the appropriate fee (if applicable). The application should be lodged within 30 days of the original determination.

The agency/council/university will undertake its internal review and advise you of its decision within 14 days of receipt of the application.

There is no right to an internal review of a determination made by a Minister or Principal Officer of an agency/council/university.

2. INVESTIGATION BY THE OMBUDSMAN

After an internal review has been completed, if you are still dissatisfied with the agency/council/university's determination, you can request an external review by the Ombudsman SA of the determination. The Ombudsman is empowered to investigate the conduct of any person or body in relation to a determination made by an agency/council/university under this Act.

You may also request an external review by the Ombudsman if you have no right to an internal review.

The application for review by the Ombudsman should be lodged within 30 days of the after the date of a determination. However, the Ombudsman can extend this time limit at their discretion.

Investigations by the Ombudsman are free. Further information is available from the Office of the Ombudsman.

3. REVIEW BY SOUTH AUSTRALIAN CIVIL AND ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNAL

You have a right to apply for a review by SACAT if you are unhappy with:

- a determination not subject to Internal Review
- an Internal Review determination, or
- the outcome of a review by the Ombudsman SA.

You must exercise your right of review with SACAT within 30 calendar days after being advised of the above types of determinations or the results of a review. Any costs will be determined by SACAT, where applicable.
