

MEDICAL CANNABIS PATIENT

Are the experiences below familiar? Unfortunately, until Federal laws change, patients will continue to suffer. It's time for laws to change — not your medicine, your job, or your zipcode.

Were told adult use would not affect medical cannabis access	Canceled travel due to access uncertainty	Thought your medicine was legal because you bought it at a gas station	Dispensary wouldn't return funds for a defective product	Were denied other pain treatments because of cannabis
Had to choose between your medicine & household costs	Feared being arrested at a national park	Worried about child custody due to their medicine	Wondered if an unexpected effect was contamination	Asked not to use your medicine at a friend's home
Loved one questioned why your medicine "costs so much"	Signed rental agreement that says you CANNOT use your medicine in your own home	FREE SPACE- Cannabis is illegal!	Forced to switch products when yours vanished from shelves	Had to explain cannabis to another doctor
Went without medicine because you couldn't afford a refill	Changed end of life plans due to anti-cannabis policies.	Lost access when a dispensary closed without notice	Mislabeled product created an unexpected side effect	Had someone use air quotes when talking about your medicine
Had to drive hours because local access is nonexistent	Had to turn down a job due to drug testing policy	Avoided surgery because hospital won't allow your medicine	Pressured to buy a product because it is overstocked	Felt shame because of your medicine
