Summary

The AEC has recently completed elections for the Australian Manufacturing Workers' Union (AMWU).

Report requirements

After the completion of an election under the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (the Act) the AEC is required to prepare a post-election report. The report must cover the matters set out in section 141 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Regulations 2009 (the Regulations). This includes:

- (a) a declaration of the results
- (b) any rules of the organisation or branch which because of ambiguity or other reason, were difficult to interpret or apply
- (c) any matters in relation to the roll of voters
- (d) the number of written allegations (if any) of irregularities made to the AEC during the election
- (e) action taken by the AEC in relation to those allegations
- (f) any other irregularities identified by the AEC and action taken by the AEC in relation to those other irregularities.

The AEC is required to identify adverse rules in the report. An adverse rule is one that the returning officer found difficult to interpret or apply to the election. The organisation must respond in writing to the AEC to any adverse rules within 30 days of the date of this post-election report.

Report findings

The AEC has identified one rule that was difficult to interpret or apply.

The AEC has also identified that hierarchy rules could be added, nomination period could be shortened, and ballot period could be brought forward by reference to the model rules. Model rules for elections were published on 30 June 2025 by the Fair Work Commission. The AEC recommends all organisations consider whether their rules could be improved or updated by reference to those rules.

DIFFICULT RULE	WHY IT IS DIFFICULT	MODEL RULE
Rule 6c (22): Where a returning officer receives a request for an absent vote made in the form described in this rule, the returning officer shall comply with that request. No ballot shall be counted until 14 days from the date of posting of the ballot paper/s by the returning officer, to provide the absent voter with reasonable opportunity to return the ballot paper/s to the returning officer.	The time to return the postal voting pack is insufficient, the AEC provides a minimum of 28 days to send and receive ballot papers	BC11 Postal ballot period

Rules that could be improved with a model rule

In conducting the election, the AEC identified the following rules that could be improved to support how the election is administered. The rules could be updated using the model rules published by the Fair Work Commission (available at <https://www.fwc.gov.au/registered-organisations/running-registered-organisation/rules-unions-and-employer-associations>)

The organisation does not need to respond to the following suggestions (i.e. section 198 of the Act does not apply) but is welcome to do so and is encouraged to consider when these suggestions reviewing its rule book.

RULE	BENEFIT	MODEL RULE
New rule: Candidates holding multiple offices	Adding the rule can clearly identify if candidates can hold multiple offices	BE1 Elections for single and multiple offices – general matters
Rule 6c (9) states that: (a) the opening date for lodging nominations shall be at 10.00 a.m. on the first day of the meeting of State Conference at which the election is to be conducted;  (b) the closing date for lodging nominations shall be at 2.00 p.m. on the first day of the meeting	Accepting nominations ahead of the meeting enables the AEC to process nominations and determine the requirement for attending to conduct a ballot.	BD6 Closing and acceptance of nominations
Rule 6c (13) states that: A ballot under this rule shall commence no sooner than 3.00 pm. on the first day of the meeting of the State Conference. Subject to a determination by the Returning Officer to extend the period, the ballot period shall be 45 minutes.	Removing the specific time for conducting a ballot provides flexibility to adjust the timeframe depending on the number of nominees and voters present.	BD9 Attendance ballot and absentee voting

  - (a) the General Manager; and
  - (b) the organisation or branch for whom the election was conducted.

Note: The AEC may be able, in the same report, to report on more than one election it has conducted for an organisation. However, regulations made under paragraph 359(2)(c) may impose requirements about the manner and timing of reports.

- (2) The report must include details of the prescribed matters.

Contents of report—register of members

- (3) If the AEC is of the opinion that the register of members, or the part of the register, made available to the AEC for the purposes of the election contained, at the time of the election:
  - (a) an unusually large proportion of members' addresses that were not current; or
  - (b) in the case of a register kept by an organisation of employees—an unusually large proportion of members' addresses that were workplace addresses;

this fact must be included in the report, together with a reference to any relevant model rules which, in the opinion of the AEC, could assist the organisation or branch to address this matter.

Note: Model rules are relevant only to the conduct of elections for office, not for elections for other positions (see section 147).

Contents of report—difficult rules

- (4) If the report identifies a rule of the organisation or branch that, in the AEC's opinion, was difficult to interpret or apply in relation to the conduct of the election, the report must also refer to any relevant model rules, which in the opinion of the AEC, could assist the organisation or branch to address this matter.

Note: For model rules, see section 147.

Subsection (3) relevant only for postal ballots

- (5) Subsection (3) applies only in relation to elections conducted by postal ballot.

Note: An organisation can obtain an exemption from the requirement to hold elections for office by postal ballot (see section 144).

198 Organisation to respond to adverse report on rules

Organisation must respond to "difficult rules" report

- (1) If an organisation or branch is given a postelection report under section 197 that identifies a rule that was difficult to interpret or apply, the organisation or branch must, within 30 days, give a written response to the AEC on that aspect of the report.

Civil penalty: 100 penalty units.

- (2) The response must specify whether the organisation or branch intends to take any action in relation to the rule, and if so, what action it intends to take.

Organisation must make its response available to members

- (3) The organisation or branch must also make available to its members the part of the report dealing with the difficult rule or rules (the relevant extract) and the organisation's or branch's response to it.
- (4) The relevant extract must be made available to members no later than the day on which the response is to be made available by the organisation or branch to members.

Civil penalty: 100 penalty units.

190 Organisation or branch must not assist one candidate over another

An organisation or branch commits an offence if it uses, or allows to be used, its property or resources to help a candidate against another candidate in an election under this Part for an office or other position.

Penalty: 100 penalty units.

193 Provisions applicable to elections conducted by AEC

    - (ii) to remedy any procedural defects that appear to the electoral official to exist in the rules; or

Note: For strict liability, see section 6.1 of the Criminal Code.

- (b) an act done in compliance with a direction under subsection (1).

- (7) If an electoral official conducting, or taking a step in connection with, an election for an office or other position:
