

Growth Organiser X 2

Full time positions – Port Adelaide

The AMWU is a trade union which represents the industrial, professional, and legal interest of manufacturing workers in South Australia.

The SA Branch is seeking to employ two Growth Organisers on full time hours in our State Branch at Port Adelaide.

To be successful in this role, the applicant should have a proven record of working in a union environment or actively organising workers in a workplace. The role will focus on growing the Union by identifying growth areas and working within a team to assist in growth strategies. A knowledge of working in a Windows environment and be able to demonstrate accurate typing and data entry skills is also required.

The successful applicant will be an essential part of the organising team working directly with Officials in the State Branch and must be able to demonstrate a commitment to the principles of trade unionism and social justice.

The candidate should possess excellent verbal and written communication skills and demonstrate a willingness to learn.

The position reports to the SA State Secretary but works closely with other team members in the Adelaide and Whyalla office providing organising support. Further detail about the position including job description and selection criteria is available on the union website at http://www.amwu.org.au/employment_opportunities_at_amwu_sa

Applications in writing, attached with your resume can be emailed to anastasia.antoniadis@amwu.org.au or received in the office by 5pm Friday 17 June 2022.
