

Mt Diablo Republican Club Silent Auction Item for May 10th Meeting

Lodging for Seven (7) Nights in Kihei, Maui at WorldMark Kihei December 2 – 9, 2023

Kihei features six miles of beaches offering clear views of Kaho'olawe, Molokini, Lāna'i and West Maui. Along with swimming and surfing, you can also find great snorkeling and kayaking — and you may even spot a giant humpback whale spouting or breaching the surface of the ocean as animal enthusiasts enjoy the whale antics.

A blink away are Kalepolepo, Waipu'ilani and the three beaches of Kama'ole. Birdwatchers and nature lovers will find what they're looking for at Keālia Pond on the north end of Kihei.

Also north of Kihei is Mā'alaea Bay, where pleasure boats launch to take visitors on whale watching expeditions, charter fishing excursions and snorkel trips to Molokini. Mā'alaea is also home to the family friendly Maui Ocean Center.

Tropical yet sophisticated, this Maui resort, just steps from the beach, delivers the experiences that'll create memories you'll treasure for a lifetime. Take in this serene island's historic, natural, and contemporary bests. Kihei is beaching-combing territory on Maui's southwest shore, the sunniest, driest end of the island, and about twenty-five minutes from Kahului Airport.

The large two bedroom suite includes a generous living room, full kitchen, dining area, washer/dryer units and two bathrooms, all designed to accommodate 6 guests. A deck provides a place for everything from morning coffee to afternoon wine with a luxurious tropical view. Additional information can be found at - worldmark.wyndhamdestinations.com/us/en/resorts/united-states-of-america/hawaii/kihei-maui/worldmark-kihei#

Kihei's Kalama Beach Park's 36 oceanfront acres are dotted with shady lawns and palm trees. The park is home to "the Cove" surf spot, beach volleyball courts, a roller-skating rink, a skate park, basketball and tennis courts, two baseball fields, picnic pavilions and a playground designed for younger kids.

You can also browse small shopping malls, a bustling farmers' market and a spate of restaurants, all of which cater to residents and visitors alike. Nightlife here includes karaoke spots, dance clubs and sports bars ensuring your Kihei nights are just as fun as your days.

Minimum bid is $1,000. Use only for period of December 2 – 9, 2023.

Any facility fees or charges are the responsibility of the purchaser.

Valued at $1,800. Donated by Paul & Peng Van Etten