Crafts:

Queer Threads
Meets hybrid every 2nd Wednesday of the month
6:30 - 8:00 p.m. Eastern
A casual crafting circle with knitting, crocheting, crafting, and stitching. Join us with your crafting projects while we stitch together in community!

Reading:

Queer Novel Reading Group
Meets every 2nd Tuesday of the month
6:30 - 8:00 p.m. Eastern
The Library at Bradbury-Sullivan LGBT Community Center welcomes you to our Queer Reading Circle, where folks can discuss literature and books they are reading to share with others. This group also can utilize our LGBTQ+ Library and books from previous groups to read something together if they so choose.

Author Talks and Book Signings:

The Library at Bradbury-Sullivan LGBT Community Center frequently hosts authors for readings and signings of newly-released books!

Queer Galleries:

Regular exhibitions in our galleries showcase the work of local, regional and nationally-known LGBT+ artists. Installations rotate on a monthly basis and include opening receptions at the start of each exhibit.

LV LGBTQ+ Film Series:

Explores and uplifts a broad and diverse scope of LGBTQ+ issues and stories by highlighting selections from the rich, enduring history of queer cinema. Through a partnership with ArtsQuest, this series showcases timeless and new comedies, dramas, documentaries, mainstream and independent films. This series spotlights queer filmmakers, screenwriters, actors, and themes.

LGBT Community Archive:

preserves and documents LGBTQ+ general history with specific emphasis on the greater Lehigh Valley. The archives contain historical collections that tell the stories of our community through photographs, documents, oral histories, and memorabilia. The collection materials are primarily donated by local individuals and organizations and include magazines, newspapers and newsletters. Additionally, the collection includes textiles and artifacts from political buttons and matchbooks to t-shirts, posters, calendars, art works, and travel guides.
