

Labour Party Consultation on Loot Boxes
Call for evidence from the gaming community

Do you feel that the lines have become blurred between gaming and gambling?

Tell me a bit more about yourself - Your gaming habits; your community; your age; profession etc...

Are loot boxes a positive or negative addition to the gaming experience?

In what ways have loot boxes changed your experience of playing video games?

Do you feel that the contents of loot boxes are always something of value?

What do you think about the selling of skins?

In what ways do you think loot boxes should be regulated?