

What do CASA members get?

The political power
of representing 350,000
student voices
across the country...

... and being the only
federal student advocacy organization
to represent students from Quebec

Knowledgeable staff that can transform
your students'
concerns...

...into feasible policy requests for the federal government

Established connections and a positive reputation
on Parliament Hill

Professional policy development and advocacy training

Access to CASA's Advocacy Week

where you get to meet with influential politicians

The chance to lead the organization through CASA's Board of Directors or committees

Staff who conduct year-round lobbying for you on Parliament Hill and with stakeholders

What do my students get?

The average student pays $2.80 to CASA per year, and now gets $530 more in grants annually due to our advocacy!

$2.80

Thanks to our work, students also get...

45,000 new
job opportunities

More time to pay off their student loan

$1 billion more available in research funding

$100 million in financial aid
for Indigenous students

...and more!
