

Craig Lieberman, President, Broker, and Managing Director of the Apartment Investment Specialists, Inc. (brokerage arm) and A.I.S Property Management Services, Inc. (property management arm), has represented buyers and sellers of multi-family properties since 1997, ranging in size from duplexes to 304 units, participating in hundreds of apartment property sales. A.I.S. also provides third-party property management services on multi-family properties.

Craig's focused real estate education has led him to earn an undergraduate degree in Real Estate followed by a graduate degree in Real Estate Appraisal and Investment Analysis from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, a reputable premier institution of advanced education. He is a Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM), the highest designation awarded to a commercial real estate professional. CCIM is an internationally recognized affiliate of the National Association of Realtors. ® Craig has served CCIM's Greater Los Angeles chapter as its Candidate Guidance Chairperson since 2019.

Craig's advanced real estate education, his lengthy personal investment history of multifamily properties, and extensive experience in multifamily property brokerage and property management, provides Craig the ability to provide his seasoned list of multifamily property investor and owner clients superb professional advisory services in apartment property investments. Taking pride in what he calls an "entrepreneurial, charismatic spirit," Craig is committed to achieving a successful outcome in every relationship — with his investor clientele and/or owners of properties he manages.