

Jeff Albee, with over 25 years of experience, is a seasoned professional in complex commercial real estate transactions. As a real estate owner and syndicator, he has been involved in over $1.7 billion worth of assets, specializing in medical and investment real estate. Jeff's extensive background ensures long-term value for his clients. Having worked with top firms like Cushman and Wakefield SVN and Colliers International, he consistently ranks as a top performer in the Los Angeles area. His skills encompass advisory, executive management, and mentorship. Recognized by the LA Business Journal as one of the area's most influential brokers, Jeff served as the president of the Greater LA Chapter in 2017 and 2022. A key strength lies in advising multigenerational real estate families on trade strategies and succession planning. Furthermore, Jeff actively contributes to charitable causes by helping organizations raise funds through real estate donations.
