

CFM in Action: Queen of the Holy Rosary - Wea in Kansas - Mission Trip to Mexico

(Thank you to Deacon Tom and Kathy Rothermich for writing and sharing this article: Bulletin 6.29.25.indd)

“On June 8, 19 travelers from Queen of the Holy Rosary Parish joined 21 others from Kansas City and St. Louis in entering Mexico for a life changing Mission Trip. We worked with Esperanza International and helped to build three houses for those who currently live in terrible conditions.

This is the 40th anniversary of Esperanza, which means “hope”. For the anniversary, they are building several homes for those with special needs. One home, where we dug a foundation, is for Lulu and her son Ernesto. Ernesto is 46 and is on dialysis for kidney failure and cannot work. Lulu has a job but she is elderly and her take home pay is less than half of what people in the US make at McDonalds.

We worked on two different home’s foundations and poured a floor slab for another. The work was hard but incredibly rewarding. The foundations are dug with jackhammers, picks and shovels. The rebar is cut and tied by hand. The concrete is mixed by hand using a small mixer and moved by hand using a “bucket line”. In spite of the hard labor, there were smiles all around. God’s love shone brightly through all!!

When not working, we played and prayed and came together as a family. We had amazing food and explored Mexican culture. We are currently planning for next year. If you feel called to change your life & others, contact Deacon Tom through office@cfm.org.

New Program Guide for 2025-2026 Destination Heaven: Leading Our Families Home

Destination Heaven:
Leading our Families Home

When it comes to raising children, parents are the primary educators and facilitators in the efforts to get their children to heaven. However, many people will impact, inspire and guide them throughout their lives. According to St. Gianna Molla, "every vocation is a call to motherhood or fatherhood, earthly, spiritual and moral."

It is our desire that the topics in this book help us to better understand the role of parenthood, that we might impart to the next generation the richness of the life God intends for each of us—to know him, love him and serve him in this world and ultimately to attain our heart's deepest longing...for each of us and our families to dwell with our loving Father in heaven.
