PART 1: A VISION FOR CFM

CFM VISION STATEMENT

CFM will continue to be a vibrant, relevant, and preferred small-group experience for families—fostering accompaniment and community among its members while striving to be active in every diocese in the United States.

Why does CFM need a vision statement?

A vision helps us remain grounded in who we are while guiding us where God is calling us as a Movement. As we look to the future of CFM, our vision keeps us focused on our mission while inspiring us to welcome new families, strengthen our communities, and continue sharing the gift of CFM for generations to come.

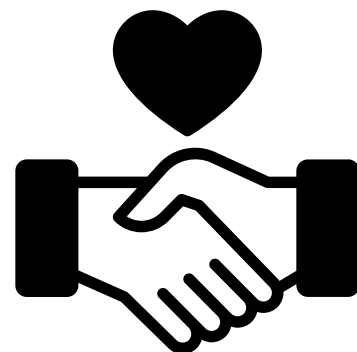

A vision gives us a clear path forward.

EXPANDING & STRENGTHENING OUR MOVEMENT

What does this vision mean for us today?

Our vision is to make the gift of CFM available to families in every diocese while building & strengthening connections among our members and engaging them in the life and leadership of the Movement.

Together, we can continue building a vibrant, connected family of families.

Bringing this vision to life requires two things: welcoming new families into CFM and encouraging current members to become more engaged in the life and leadership of the Movement.

Every family we welcome, every parish relationship we build, and every new CFM group we begin brings us one step closer to making this vision a reality.

Who is one family in your parish that God may be calling to CFM?

Extend one invitation this month.

Next month we will feature more practical strategies to help leaders continue to put CFM's vision into action.
