The convention will be at the Central Carolina Community College, 764 West Street in Pittsboro in Building 2. Registration is from 9 - 9:30 AM with the call to convention at 10:00. We have a great agenda planned, with the keynote address by Becki Gray of the John Locke Foundation. We will elect our county party officers, confirm the executive committee members, and select delegates to the District and State conventions. Everything should be complete by noon, so please plan on coming by and meeting your fellow Chatham County conservatives!

Please RSVP at <https://www.chathamncgop.com/2019convention>.

Remember, in order to be a delegate to the District or State Republican Convention you must attend the County Convention, or you must let us know you wish to be a delegate but cannot attend the convention. Delegates must be registered Republicans as of January 31, 2019. Notify us at chathamncgop@gmail.com.

State of the Union

President Trump gave his State of the Union speech on last week, emphasizing the past and future greatness of our country. To see it again, visit the White House link at <https://www.whitehouse.gov/sotu/>. A big thanks to our President for working to keep his campaign promises.

Chair's Corner

In just thirteen months, North Carolina holds our primary elections on March 3, 2020. We will see millions of dollars in out-of-state money attempting to denigrate Republicans, make fun of conservative values, and lie about accomplishments. Some Democrat candidates have already announced their intentions to run for President, and they are competing to see who can deliver the most leftist Socialist promises. Meanwhile President Trump continues to make good on his promises from the 2016 campaign: tax cuts, exiting the Iran deal, exiting the Paris climate accord, bombing ISIS, reducing North Korea's arsenal. In short, Making America Great Again.

In 2020, our home state will be a national battleground state, with leftists trying to convert the state to blue. We can see the results of other blue state elections. Oregon is confiscating guns. New York is running out of money to keep government operating, and is asking President Trump for assistance. California, well, what's there left to say about the left coast that hasn't already been said?

Every election is pivotal. Given the socialist positions already being staked out by the leftist candidates, 2020 will be key to maintaining the free America for which our founders pledged their lives, liberties, and sacred honor.
