Grab our tools to confront and educate a media landscape that has long fueled genocide through distortion and denial. For over 75 years, Western media has flooded the world with toxic misinformation about Palestinians — spreading lies, propaganda, and deliberate distortions that uphold a violent occupation. The media hasn't just reported on Zionism; it has actively enabled it. Too often, journalists operate inside echo chambers shaped by the Zionist lobby, rarely exposed to Palestinian voices or realities. This toolkit is here to change that.
