War criminals must be held accountable.
If they're not, it sends a clear message to future
elected officials and political appointees that they are not required to uphold the basic tenets of human rights and international law.

H.R. McMaster's WAR CRIMES:

McMaster, former U.S. National Security Advisor, advocated for escalation in Afghanistan which led to 4,000 troops being deployed.

McMaster has repeatedly declared his "unwavering support" for Israel's "right to defend itself." But bombing hospitals and killing hundreds of thousands of civilians is not self-defense.

He led counterinsurgency operations in Iraq and Afghanistan which often led to civilian deaths, mass surveillance, arbitrary detentions, and displacement.

McMaster helped design Trump's withdrawal plan from the Iran Nuclear Deal, escalating tensions between Iran and the U.S.

McMaster helped facilitate arms sales that led to the war in Yemen and refused to condemn bombings on hospitals, weddings and school buses.
