The CCO Announces the Opening of New Office in Windsor

Windsor - March 11, 2019 – The Conseil de la coopération de l'Ontario (CCO) announces the opening of a new office in Southwestern Ontario. Located at 1000 University Avenue West (Suite 101), this office adds to those already in place in Ottawa, Toronto, Sudbury and Temiskaming Shores.

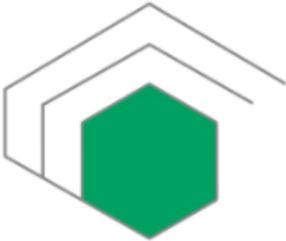

This new office will be a point of convergence for the different services offered by the CCO, including support services for the development of social and cooperative enterprises. The Windsor region has stood out for its appetite for social and cooperative entrepreneurship over the last few years, and it has become obvious for the CCO that there was a need to allocate additional resources. The opening of this office also fits very well with the organization's long term development plans.

The office will increase the supply of services to entrepreneurs in the region and foster the sustainable economic and social growth. The occupation of the office was effective on March 4th and an official launch event will be held on March 28th from 3 pm to 5 pm.

"We thought it was important to establish a local presence given the fact that we are already working on so many projects in the Windsor area, " said Julien Geremie, CCO's Executive Director. "We'll be offering many training events and all of our usual services and we look forward to strengthening our community connections in the region."

Clément Panzavolta, previously titled Development Officer for the CCO in Toronto, is now the Senior Development Officer at the Windsor office and the regional Lead for the CCO. A true champion of the development of collective enterprises, he will soon be supported by a second person at this new location.

The CCO wishes to thank all the partners involved in its successful arrival in Windsor. An invitation is launched to visit the new office on March 28th! To participate, kindly send a confirmation email to the following address: clement.panzavolta@cco.coop.
