

Patrolman, suspect shot in gun fight

By MIKE McCABE
Minneapolis Star Staff Writer

A Minneapolis policeman and a robbery suspect were wounded in a shootout on the North Side last night.

The officer, Patrolman Patrick Kiely, 27, was shot in the right hand as he and his partner, Richard Schultz, tried to arrest a man suspected of robbery and car theft, police said.

The suspect, Michael Simmons, 22, 226 Clifton Av. S., was listed in serious condition today at Hennepin County Medical Center after he was shot five times during the gun battle, police said. Kiely was listed in satisfactory condition at the center.

Police gave this account:

AN ACQUAINTANCE of Simmons, Donald Mempel, address unknown, called police about 5:30 p.m. to report that he had been knocked unconscious in an apartment at 2018 4th Av. S., apparently

POLICE

Continued on Page 8A

Patrick kiely 23 sep 1975 1

Clipped By:

cuapb_mpls
Fri, Jul 16, 2021