

Dr. Gerald Huesken, A Lifetime of Service

Dr. Huesken retires from CVEF, over 38 years with CV

Welcome to the Conestoga Valley Alumni & Friends newsletter!

Supported by the Conestoga Valley Education Foundation, this newsletter is designed to bring our alumni community closer together by highlighting alumni stories, upcoming events, district and community news, and other moments worth celebrating.

This month, we're proud to feature Dr. Gerald Huesken—an enduring presence in Conestoga Valley history. While many may recognize his name from the Gerald Huesken Middle School, his greatest legacy lies in the profound impact of his leadership as an administrator, superintendent, and Executive Director of CVEF. His dedication has helped shape generations of students and strengthened the entire CV community.
