1.7 M PEOPLE ARE DENIED EQUAL RIGHTS

Over 1.7 million people - undocumented people, migrant workers, international students & refugee claimants - don't have labour rights. They can't get most social services including universal healthcare, and are separated from their families. They face exclusion and exploitation, and undocumented people live in fear of detention and deportation.

THEY ARE OUR NEIGHBOURS AND FRIENDS

Migrants work in farms and feed us. They take care of children, sick and elderly. They are our classmates and co-workers and they build communities. When so many people are denied equal rights, all of us suffer.

WE HAVE A HISTORIC OPPORTUNITY

The solution is simple: permanent resident status for everyone. And the government is listening. Changes are coming, but we need to make sure no one is left behind. PM Trudeau promised permanent resident status for undocumented people (regularization) as well as for migrant workers and students in December 2021. But he has not decided yet if he will ensure equality for everyone, or continue exploitation for most of us.

THIS IS WHERE YOU COME IN

Decision makers need to hear from you that Status for All will ensure racial, gender and economic justice. A fair society is one with equal rights, and equal rights are only possible if we all have the same immigration status.
