WE DEFEND FREEDOM

If You Really Love America

If you really love America, MAGA wouldn't offend you. What part of Make America Great Again offends you?

If you really love the planet, you wouldn't drive an EV. Do you not realize with each Electric Vehicle made; exponentially greater carbon emissions result compared to conventional vehicles?

If you really abhor racism, you wouldn't support CRT. Do you not realize that Critical Race Theory preaches that white people are oppressors and are fundamentally evil?

If you care about the content of people's character you really wouldn't care so much about the color of their skin. When someone violates your rights as in a crime, is it the color of their skin that violated you or their character? Put another way, if you're not a racist you wouldn't obsess over skin color.

If you're really compassionate you wouldn't want open borders. Surely you realize that Biden's irresponsible open borders policy has caused a humanitarian crisis the likes of which America has never seen?

If you're really compassionate you wouldn't favor illegal migrants over our veterans. Why would anyone who claims the mantle of compassion ignore the plight of so many of our veterans who sacrificed so much for our nation over those who disrespect our laws and illegally invade America?

If you want to stop crimes, you wouldn't attack the 2nd Amendment. Why are those obsessed with abolishing our right to keep and bear arms so willing to render the innocent helpless?

If you want safe communities, you wouldn't defund the police. Why do those who claim to care about their communities work so hard to undermine the police?

If you really care about upholding community standards on social media, you wouldn't want those with whom you disagree to be silenced. How could Facebook and other leftwing social media claim a moral high standard when they are clearly policing speech and silencing those against whom they disagree?

If you really care about free speech, you wouldn't condone any form of censorship. Is it not crystal clear to everyone the Left pushes censorship to cover up their malfeasance and glaring hypocrisy?

If you want equality you wouldn't take from those who work to give to those who don't. Why does equality not apply to the producers who work hard and follow the rules but only apply to those who claim to be victims of inequality?

If you really care about the poor, you wouldn't attack the rich who pay for 90% of everything. What good is it to destroy the producers who create the resources in order to care for those desperate for these very resources?

If you care about education for our children you wouldn't impose on them a gender identity crisis. How in the world can it possibly be a positive educational experience to utterly confuse young children of their biological gender identity?

If you want equal rights for gays, you wouldn't violate the rights of non-gays. Does equal rights not mean that every person is entitled to the same treatment?

If you really want, fair elections you would want voter ID. If you don't want voter fraud how then can you object to voters confirming their right to vote as citizens?

If you want world peace you wouldn't tolerate despotism like Communist China. Do you not see the existential threat to world peace a despotic tyranny like Communist China represents today, and why in the world does America allow herself to be so exposed and vulnerable to Communist China's clear aggressions?

If you want peace in America, you wouldn't call those you disagree with racists. If you want peace in America, why would you vilify people who do not share your opinion and call them racists?

If you want unity you wouldn't obsess over our differences. Ever wonder why there's such a pervasive use of the term "diversity?" Does that not always dwell on our differences? Why not celebrate our shared love of country, family, peace and tranquility in America instead?

If you really love America, you wouldn't tear down our history. Is it not obvious to all that those who mock our heritage and attack our traditions actually have the goal of destroying patriotism?

If you really love America, you wouldn't do anything that may weaken her. Do we not see clear as day that virtually every single policy of the Biden administration and the Democrat Party are demonstrably deleterious to the health and vitality of the United States?

If you care about the truth, you wouldn't watch CNN. Are we not utterly exhausted at the gross misinformation and outright lies from the entire mainstream media that has completely abandoned any semblance of professional journalism ethics in siding with the political Left and Democrats over the truth?

If you want justice, you wouldn't undermine our rule of law. How in the world did we get to where we are today with rogue Leftwing DA's running roughshod over our justice system, enabling felons to terrorize our cities while weaponizing our judicial system to persecute their political opposition?

If you really care about equal justice, you wouldn't condone biased injustice. Do you not realize the Left has corrupted our department of Justice and the FBI to go after regular Americans who disagree with the post-Constitutional Biden Doctrine? The "fake insurrection" of January 6th is but one such example. Have we forgotten Hitler's Gestapo or China's Maoist Red Guards persecuting the innocent?

If you respect our rights to be Americans you wouldn't attack our Constitution. Is it not utterly maddening to you to witness so many who took the oath of office yet so egregiously violate our Constitution?

If you really love America, you wouldn't be a Democrat today. Is this statement not entirely self-explanatory?
