Sixteen delegates from Pender County traveled to Greensboro, along with 1,800 other delegates, to participate in the NCGOP's Annual Convention. We were treated to great speeches by former President Donald Trump, Governor Ron DeSantis and former Vice President Mike Pence. We also enjoyed the opportunity to interact with many state and national elected officials.

Much of the time at a state convention is spent hearing updates and future plans from party leaders and debating amendments to our governing documents. Sadly we did not get to the important work of updating our Plan of Organization and Platform.

In odd numbered years we elect our state Chair and Vice Chair. There were delays in getting our voting apps to work, but in the end, Michael Whatley (who visited us recently) was reelected as our State Party Chair. Susan Mills was declared our Vice Chair.
