

RULES FOR THE CABARRUS COUNTY
REPUBLICAN PARTY CONVENTION
Adopted on March 20, 2025

I. Adoption and Suspension of Rules:

A. The Rules of the Cabarrus County Republican Party Convention (the “Convention”) shall conform with the State of North Carolina Republican Party Plan of Organization, last revised May 25th, 2024 (the “State Plan”), the Cabarrus County Plan of Organization, last revised March 7th, 2024, and the rules contained herein which are drawn from the State Plan shall not be suspended.

B. These rules shall be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Delegates and Alternates seated as Delegates at the Convention. They may be suspended during the Convention proceedings only by a two-thirds vote of the Delegates and Alternates seated as Delegates at the Convention, except for the rules drawn from the State Plan, which shall not be suspended.

C. The latest edition of Robert’s Rules of Order (Newly Revised 12th Edition) shall govern this Convention in all instances to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these Rules and the State Plan.

II. Debate:

All debates shall be “formal debates” as defined in Robert’s Rules of Order. The debate time shall be set at the discretion of the Convention Chair, provided that each matter subject to debate shall be given equal time.

III. Method of Voting:

A. Delegates and Alternates sitting as Delegates must be on the floor when their votes are cast.

B. Only Delegates and Alternates seated as Delegates elected at properly called Precinct Meetings shall be allowed to vote.

C. All voting will be done by paper ballot.

D. In election years, delegates will vote for the offices of County Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer

1. There will be separate elections for each office.
2. There will be a maximum of two rounds for each office.
3. A simple majority will determine who is elected.
4. A second round of voting will only be conducted if no candidate receives a majority of votes during the first round. Only the two nominees with the highest vote tallies in the first round will be considered in the second round.
5. If a tie exists after the second round, the winner will be chosen by coin toss.

E. In election years, delegates will vote for members on the at-large Executive Committee.

1. All positions will be voted for on the same ballot.
2. There will only be one round of voting.
3. The at-large Executive Committee will elect the fourteen people receiving the most votes.
4. Should a person over-vote their ballot, the number of overvotes above fourteen will be removed in reverse alphabetical order based upon the candidate's last name.
5. If there is a tie for the fourteenth position, a standing vote if a quorum is still present will break the tie. A majority vote will determine the winner. A coin toss will determine the winner if a quorum is absent.

F. All nominees shall be subject to the Convention's vote, whether opposed or unopposed.

IV. Nominations:

A. In addition to Nominations made at the previously held Precinct Meetings, any Delegate or Alternate seated as a Delegate shall be entitled to make nominations.

B. Anyone making a nomination or a second shall identify themselves before proceeding.

C. Nomination speeches are limited to one minute and from the floor only.

D. Seconding shall be from the floor by voice only.

E. Nominees previously nominated and nominated on the day of the Convention are allowed to make a two-minute speech.

V. Other matters: In years in which elections are conducted, if any contest should develop over any matter other than the election, the Convention Chair shall allow each side an allotted time, and debate shall be as provided in Section II of these Rules.

VI. Resolutions:

No proposed resolution shall be considered in order at the Convention unless it has first been submitted to the Resolutions Committee in written form and under that Committee's rules. Resolutions approved by the Resolutions Committee will be included in the Committee's report to be considered and voted upon at the Convention.

Any proposed resolution that is not brought to the floor of the Convention by the report of the Resolutions Committee may be offered for consideration at the Convention only if a minimum of four hundred written copies are brought to the Convention and delivered to the Credentials desk by 5:15 pm, for distribution at the discretion of the Convention Chair, and upon the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the Convention Delegates to consider the resolution.

VII. Amendment of Agenda:

Depending on the arrival times of the guest speakers, the Convention Chair shall have the authority to amend the agenda at his discretion to accommodate their schedules.

VIII. Recurring Effect of Rules:

These Rules shall remain in effect through the Convention, at which they are adopted, and thereafter, unless and until they are modified or replaced by a later Convention or the County Plan of Organization.
