

The Power of Perseverance and Rickenbacker's Plan for Victory

⚠ ATTENTION: Two of the biggest challenges we're facing right now are Socialism and Cancel Culture.

- » We are seeing the long march to socialism and the takeover of our government by socialists.
- » Also Cancel Culture is now mainstream – where you can get cut off, defunded or outright censored if you don't go along with the socialist takeover.

It can be easy to lose our optimism. Unfortunately, the last election was not the “red wave” of Republicans that many people had expected or hoped for. Instead, things seem to go according to plan for the Biden Democrats.

“The red wave crashed into a blue wall. What that translates into is full speed ahead for the ‘New New Deal,’ a.k.a. the Green New Deal.” —Kevin Freeman

THE PROBLEM: Essentially, we're being told to give up personal liberty for the greater good as defined by the elites.

This is laid out in Kevin Freeman's recent book, According to Plan – that Elite Secret Plan to Sabotage America.

- » This is nothing new. We saw this in the 1970s and before that in the 1930s.
- » President Reagan warned us that every generation would have to fight for freedom. And this is our fight.

THERE IS GOOD NEWS!

The Bible tells us:
“That which has been is what will be,
That which is done is what will be done,
And there is nothing new under the sun.” (Ecclesiastes 1:9, NKJV)

If that's true, we ought to be able to learn from history!

In this week's briefing, Kevin Freeman reviews what we can learn from history and how to apply it today. What we face now is a higher-tech version of years past. So, it's important to know that there are lessons from the past that can help guide us even in difficult times.

Your Mission: Commit yourself to the critical lessons of perseverance, maintain optimism, and recognize you are not alone.

Apply the lessons from Eddie Rickenbacker included in this briefing and discover the victory that can be ours to save America.

In this briefing, we'll review the following lessons to protect America:

- » Strive with excellence.
- » Maintain fidelity to principle.
- » Put aside differences when required.
- » Persevere through faith.
- » Have the right attitude – always.

“Those who cannot remember the past are condemned to repeat it.”

–George Santayana, 1905

⚠ ATTENTION: Socialism seems destined to overtake America, plunging humanity into a new Dark Ages period. The elites seem to be gaining a science fiction level of control at the expense of individual liberty.

Lessons In History: Biblical Promises of God’s Delivery – You Are Not Alone!

The last election didn’t do much to restore faith in the American experiment. Yet, here are two hopeful messages for you:

1. You are not alone.
2. People have faced similar challenges before and overcame them.

The Bible is full of examples of when people felt alone, and God showed them they were not. For example, in I Kings 19:10, Elijah prays:

“I have been very zealous for the Lord God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I alone am left; and they seek to take my life.” (I Kings 19:10, NKJV)

- » In verse 18, God makes it clear to Elijah that he was not alone. First, God was with him, but also God tells him there were 7,000 others who would stand with him.

In 2 Kings 6:15–17 is another time when those serving God felt alone, but He delivered them.

“And Elisha prayed, and said, ‘Lord, I pray, open his eyes that he may see.’ Then the Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw. And behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.” (2 Kings 6:15–17, NKJV)

Bottom line, they weren’t alone, and neither are you. In fact, we may be in the majority.

See Episode 212, where Lt. Governor Mark Robinson recently shared more on this topic.

But tyrants stoke our fear of isolation to silence, divide, and conquer us.

We learned that from Stella Morabito’s great new book, “The Weaponization of Loneliness”. Be sure to catch episode 218 also. We are not alone!

1. The Importance of Persistence and Faith.

People have faced similar challenges of isolation before and overcame them. We can look at David versus Goliath, or The Battle of Dunkirk as examples.

In this exclusive teaching series, Kevin Freeman reviews the remarkable life of Fast Eddie Rickenbacker and the lessons of his life that can be applied today.

More about Eddie Rickenbacker, his background and success:

- » Fast Eddie loved cars.
- » He set the world land speed record at Daytona in 1914, clocking in at 134 miles per hour.
- » He once even owned the Indianapolis 500.
- » He was America's most famous World War I flying ace.
- » Captain Eddie Rickenbacker was later known as "America's Ace of Aces."
- » He was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor in 1930.
- » Snoopy's battles with the Red Baron are patterned after him.
- » His story is extremely relevant today.

Eddie Rickenbacker had to face 21st century circumstances in the 1930s.

- » The early part of the last century was a time of incredible innovation.
- » News by radio, automobiles, electricity, then the airplane, and a world at war.
- » Things were happening fast, and technology seemed overwhelming.
- » Then there was a pandemic called the Spanish Flu – forced vaccines and health care, modernizing and globalizing.
- » Then there was a serious economic crash that opened the door to a complete restructuring of the American economy.

It was in this environment that Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, the entrepreneur, stood up.

- » Rickenbacker owned auto companies, a speedway, and eventually an airline.
- » He was a war hero in the 1930s.
- » He was loyal to America and the free market economy.

He was alarmed when he saw Roosevelt confiscating gold, taking control over whole industries.

- » Socialism was on the march and America's "ace of aces" was not one to sit still.
- » Rickenbacker's politics were decidedly anti-communist. He supported America first.
- » He vigorously opposed the Roosevelt New Deal and was canceled and censured for doing so.

Rickenbacker was Canceled! It was Economic Warfare.

In 1934, President Roosevelt cut off a government mail contract with Rickenbacker's Eastern Air transport. That was a huge blow. It was economic warfare!

- » Roosevelt gave the contract to the Army Air Corps that Rickenbacker had helped build.
  - Running mail across the country was not the military's key strength, and it wasted valuable resources.
  - Army pilots were not trained to fly that way.
  - Captain Rickenbacker protested, because he thought the government was wrongly taking private contracts.
  - He also knew that Army pilots died unnecessarily trying to fly mail.

His Response

"Rickenbacker with Jack Fry, vice president of TWA, and a contingent of journalists flew coast to coast in the one and only Douglas DC 1, the granddaddy of all Gooney Birds, in 13 hours and 2 minutes, a transcontinental record for commercial airplanes. It was a public protest against what Rickenbacker bitterly denounced as legalized murder, since three Army pilots had died trying to get to their assigned stations." —Historynet.com

Roosevelt cut off Eastern Airlines in an act of economic warfare to defund Eddie Rickenbacker – even after he proved that commercial airlines were better suited to deliver mail than fighter pilots.

Congress acted. From Historynet.com:

“The Airmail Act of 1934 was passed after several more Army pilots were killed because they were untrained in instrument flying and their aircraft were inadequately equipped.”

- » The legislation changed the structure of US civil aviation.
- » The Civil Aviation Authority was established and granted control over airports, air navigation aids, air mail and radio communications.

Rickenbacker stayed persistent; he fought back against socialism.

- » He went to the radio, and he started telling the story of what Roosevelt was doing.
  - And guess what?
  - President Roosevelt called RCA, Radio Corporation of America, and had him taken off – Eddie Rickenbacker was the first man canceled.

Rickenbacker responded by showing private enterprise works better than government handouts.

- » He raised salaries.
- » He improved working conditions.
- » He instituted an employee stock option plan.
- » He wanted to show that private enterprise works better than government handouts.

In 1938, Rickenbacker bought Eastern Airlines!

- » Eastern Airlines showed that free enterprise worked for all parties.
- » It was the only commercial airline to operate without subsidies.
- » Eastern Airlines had the best safety record.

- » In 1937, Eastern was the first airline to receive an award from the National Safety Council.
  - It flew for seven years, 141 million miles without a single passenger fatality.

NOTE: FDR wasn't happy that America's Ace of Aces was vocally demonstrating that free enterprise is superior to his New Deal.

So Much for Free Speech. Rickenbacker believed FDR was implementing socialism and the famed fighter ace refused to stay quiet. He spoke out against President Roosevelt regularly and on public radio, criticizing the New Deal and the president himself. And FDR canceled Eddie Rickenbacker.

It's like Twitter banning you if you vocally disagree with the official COVID narrative. Oh, wait, they did that, didn't they?

KEY POINT - "There's nothing new under the sun. The government tries to take over the whole economy and then attempts to silence anyone who disagrees with them." —Kevin Freeman

2. Things are more complex now, but the basic principles remain exactly the same.

Eddie Rickenbacker's scorecard against isolation and being canceled.

- » He outlasted FDR.
- » Built Eastern Airways into a powerhouse before his retirement in 1963.
- » He was a captain of industry after World War II.
- » He helped steer America back to free enterprise.
- » He was never really silenced.
- » He was never was afraid to stand up for what he knew to be true.

The Five life lessons from Fast Eddie Rickenbacker that apply to today. These can help us in times of adversity and in our fight for economic liberty.

1. Strive with excellence.
2. Maintain fidelity to principle.
3. Put aside differences when required.
4. Persevere through faith.
5. Have the right attitude – always.

3. More on the 5 Life Lessons of Eddie Rickenbacker

1. Strive with Excellence.

It's not achieve with excellence, it is strive because it doesn't come cheap or easy.

From Troubled Teen to Famous Racecar Driver.

Eddie Rickenbacker was a troubled teen when his dad died in a work-related incident. He quit school and worked any job he could find to help a struggling family. It was there that he became fascinated with the early days of the auto industry.

- » Young Rickenbacker took a correspondence course to learn how to be a mechanic, and his hard work paid off.
- » He caught the eye of automobile entrepreneurs like Harvey Firestone.
- » He demonstrated excellence and rose through the ranks, becoming a racecar driver and eventually owning the Indianapolis 500.

World War I Ace of Aces.

- » Eddie volunteered and started as a military driver for officers in Europe.
- » Because he had mastered mechanics, he was asked to be the chief engineer at a flight school in France. That's where he became fascinated with airplanes.
- » He leveraged that into getting an opportunity to get a pilot's commission and go through the flight school himself.
- » His fellow pilots looked down on him as uneducated and unworthy.
- » Eddie's continuing commitment to excellence made it possible for him to outshine all his fellow pilots.

- » By the end of the war, he brought down 26 enemy aircraft and earned the moniker – Ace of Aces.

Our First Lesson:

“When facing adversity, become so excellent that you can’t be ignored – no matter your business. Do it better than anyone else and don’t just complain about what’s wrong.” —Kevin Freeman

2. Always Demonstrate Fidelity to Principle, Even Above Self-Interest.

There are so many examples where Captain Rickenbacker chose the right path, even when he could have taken the easy way out.

- » He refused to take bankruptcy when he was $250,000 in debt.
  - In today’s dollars, that’s over $4 million.
  - He wasn’t going to go bankrupt.
  - He paid everybody back every penny.
- » In his early years, he made a lot of money racing cars.
  - He made the equivalent of $1,000,000 a year salary, actually $40,000 a year at the time.
  - He did not hesitate to join the war effort even though he gave up his huge salary.
- » He stood by his principles after the Great War.
  - He testified at the court martial of General Billy Mitchell in his defense.
  - He knew his commander was being falsely attacked and was willing to stand up to the Department of Defense and set the record straight.
  - He put his career on the line for what he knew to be right – again.
- » He closed the Indianapolis Speedway for the war effort.
  - He knew there were more important things than racing cars.
    - He felt the military could use the rubber, steel, and gasoline.
- » Even when Captain Rickenbacker was promoted to Major in his retirement, he turned it down.
  - He felt Captain was the proper rank.
  - He chose principle over personal benefit.

Our Second Lesson:

Always be faithful and loyal despite the circumstances. This is not a time to cut corners or take the easy way out. We can't cheat in elections even if we think they're cheating.

3. The Importance of Putting Aside Differences When Something Greater is at Stake.

Remember how Rickenbacker opposed the New Deal and was punished by Roosevelt for doing so. Despite their deep differences:

- » When Roosevelt called just after the Pearl Harbor attack, Captain Rickenbacker responded.
  - He was asked to undertake a secret mission and deliver a message to General MacArthur.
  - It would have been so easy to say no. At least put up a fight since he was a civilian.
- » To make things harder, Roosevelt wanted him to be a vocal supporter of his policies and rally the troops in the Pacific.
- » Not only did Eddie Rickenbacker do it, but he did it without complaint, in spite of great hardship.
- » He had the attention of the entire nation but demonstrated his loyalty because he felt it was an important cause.

Our Third Lesson:

We may face events when we have to support something or someone because the cause is just, even if we disagree with the others promoting it.

- » Example: When Muslim parents wanted their schools to stop sexualizing children, Kelly Shackelford stepped in to say they have free speech and religious liberty rights.
- » Standing up for what is right can often bring unexpected costs and consequences.

4. Perseverance Through Faith – Can Make the Difference Between Life and Death. It did for Eddie Rickenbacker.

- » Captain Rickenbacker had no way of knowing the high price he would have to pay to complete Roosevelt's mission.
- » This was a man who had endured many hardships.
  - He had faced death countless times in his missions as a fighter pilot. He'd been in car wrecks, threatened by the president, nearly bankrupt. But he had no idea that his greatest trial would lie ahead.
- » It was the direct result of putting aside his differences to do what he believed was the right thing. And it almost cost him everything.
- » This trial nearly killed him. But through it, he uncovered a faith he never knew he had.

Rickenbacker's Dangerous Secret Mission.

When Pearl Harbor was attacked, Eddie Rickenbacker agreed to a secret mission for the president, even agreeing to rally troops along the way.

- » He had no idea how this would change his life, or how much it would cost him.
- » Rickenbacker's tours required him to take a B-17 transport from Honolulu to Canton Island in-route to General MacArthur. But the flight never arrived.
  - There was a navigational failure that caused Rickenbacker's plane to miss a refueling stop and eventually forced the plane to ditch into the Pacific.
- » Rickenbacker wasn't the pilot; he was just a passenger. But he took command of the situation without any real rations adrift at sea.
- » Hopelessly lost, eight men shared three life rafts. One of them was severely injured and eventually died.
- » The other seven endured 24 days without any external reason for hope.
  - All of this is recounted in Rickenbacker's book with the title, "Seven Came Through". It's a miracle story, and Captain Eddie Rickenbacker was, as always, a genuine hero, despite being so much older than the crew.

- » The men prayed for miracles and survived on captured rainwater.
  - Rickenbacker said prayers nightly for all involved.
  - One day a seagull landed on Eddie's head, and he grabbed it. They feathered it and shared the meat in equal portions so all remaining would survive.
  - Rickenbacker believed the Seagull was a sign from God that they should never give up.

He Remained Dedicated to His Mission.

- » After more than three weeks, a plane spotted the rafts and eventually they were rescued.
- » Even after the rescue, Eddie continued his mission.
- » He went on to find MacArthur.
  - He could have given up and gone home, but instead he had to deliver the secret message.
- » After that, he went to the War Department and taught them how to equip planes so that they could better survive when forced to land in the ocean.
- » Then he began a tour of America to sell war bonds.
  - He even undertook a 55,000-mile trip to encourage our allies in Russia and China.
- » Rickenbacker was offered the rank of Major General.
  - He refused it. He wanted the freedom to tell the truth and to criticize the government as necessary.

Our Fourth Lesson:

This incredible hardship did not make Eddie Rickenbacker a quitter. Instead, he looked for solutions. And we can't be quitters either. We must learn to persevere through faith, finding solutions to our greatest challenges.

5. We Must Always Have the Right Attitude and Express it with as Much Joy as Possible.

It's not through our frustration, it's in our perseverance that we win in the long term.

- Newscasts are too focused on what's wrong and how we're losing. A friend called those Satan's newsletters.
- We decided to address this with our weekly updates

We recognize media is part of the problem, that is why we built the Economic War Room® –

We cover The Bad, the Good, and the Beautiful.

- » So much time is spent bellyaching over problems without even trying to think of solutions.
- » At the Economic War Room®, we're always looking for the silver lining and always looking for solutions.
  - There's not another show on television or the Internet or podcast or program anywhere that is as solution-driven as the Economic War Room.
  - Every week we try to share with you the bad, the good, and the beautiful. It's the opposite of the good, the bad, and the ugly.
  - Yes, there are problems, but there is a reason for optimism and there are practical things we can and should do to bring about solutions.

Rickenbacker found a reason to stay optimistic despite the news!

“Captain Eddie Rickenbacker’s life approach was one of optimism, faith, and perseverance. He held true to it even under the worst of circumstances.”

—Kevin Freeman

Rickenbacker stayed perpetually optimistic, even when it enraged his companions.

“As the days dragged monotonously on and no search planes appeared, Rickenbacker cajoled, insulted and even angered everyone in an attempt to keep their hopes alive. One man tried to commit suicide to make room for the others, but Rickenbacker accused him of being a coward and hauled him back in. They all steadily weakened as time went on and bitter arguments ensued with Rickenbacker as the focus of harsh remarks.

“But the airline executive believed that he must not admit defeat, and he used sarcasm and ridicule or anything he could do to keep the others from giving up. He later learned that several of the other survivors had sworn an oath that they would continue living just for the pleasure of burying Eddie Rickenbacker at sea.

“Passions flared, but when you read the accounts of the men afterward, they knew what Rickenbacker was doing and they thanked him for it. He would not allow their pessimism to stand in the way of their rescue.” —Historynet.com

Our Fifth Lesson:

Don't let pessimism and hopelessness rule your heart. It's crucial for us to have the right attitude. We're not hopeless now any more than they were then.

4. Remember The miracle story of Dunkirk as we face the challenges today!

We have discussed this many times in previous Economic Battle Plans™ and in the Economic War Room. (<https://www.history.com/topics/world-war-ii/dunkirk>)

Small ships (leisure and fishing crafts) rescued more than 300,000 British soldiers from certain death or defeat. It took prayer, faith, work and ultimately thanksgiving to survive enough and go on to victory.

Today, we're faced with some dark and dire circumstances.

- » We see Google effectively stealing elections. Robert Epstein told us that in episode 214.
- » We see the advent of central bank digital currencies and means of total economic control emerging.
- » We see a massive budget debt and out-of-control spending.
- » We see our own funding of China as an adversary and building up their military, and we're paying for it with our tax and investment dollars!
- » We see de-platforming and canceling of righteous people.
- » We see attacks on the family and family values.

We've covered these topics in the Economic War Room. It is bad, but we also share the hope. We've offered genuine solutions and action steps we can take to protect our families and nations.

 ATTENTION: Many of the problems we face can be addressed by getting our heart right, by getting our money right first.

→ Jesus taught us that in Luke 16:11. That's why we keep telling people they must weaponize their money – they're giving, spending, and investing if they want to achieve victory in this economic war.

5. Your application and mission for today!

Apply Rickenbacker's life lessons and make sure your money is aligned around liberty, security, and values.

Eddie Rickenbacker faced overwhelming hardship throughout his life and career, but he was relentlessly triumphant. We can learn so much from him, including these five key lessons covered today:

1. We strive with excellence.
2. Maintain fidelity to principle.
3. Put aside differences when required.
4. Persevere through faith.
5. Have the right attitude always.

We recognize it's not easy to do this, especially if you feel alone. You're going to need help because things are more complicated than 100 years ago. But the principles are the same. Be part of the Economic War Room community and invite your Financial advisor to be part of the NSIC Institute.

We're in another war. This one's an economic war, you are being targeted and should have help!

Like in Rickenbacker's day:

- » We face an enemy at home in the form of government overreach and socialism.
- » We also face a foreign enemy.
  - Then it was Germany and Japan. Now it's China and Russia.
  - For the most part, it's an economic war and you're being targeted.

That's why we're training financial advisors at the NSIC Institute. NSIC stands for National Security Investment Consultant.

Do you have a financial advisor? You should have one. A stockbroker, a financial planner, an insurance agent, a CPA, anyone who can help you with your investing.

- » If you've got one, don't you want them trained to help align your money with your values?
- » We train advisors at Liberty University in an eight-week course. You can learn more about this at <https://www.nsic.org/>.

In the Economic War Room®, we encourage Americans to be the “small ships that make the difference.” You cannot solely rely on the government or the president to solve America’s problems. You have to make a difference. It is up to you to help take our country back and create a voice for economic liberty.
