

Former CIA Operative is Exposing Espionage and Malfeasance at the Highest Levels

Americans tend to think we live insularly, believing that everything revolves around the United States. And we ignore the fact that there are very real enemies of our nation out there.

The term “existential” gets overused, it’s almost become a buzzword. Still, it is appropriate now for us to look around the world and realize that we face a whole host of existential threats.

- » We were obsessed with ISIS and the caliphate (a political-religious successor to the Islamic prophet Muhammad).
- » Now we have an Afghan superstate with Al Qaeda as strong or stronger than it ever was.
- » China is challenging us directly and could invade Taiwan at any moment.
- » We have a southern border that no longer exists; therefore, it’s not just an influx of illegals. Anything and everything (any kind of threat) could walk across or be driven across that border.
- » We just experienced – either intentionally or unintentionally – a biological weapons attack from China. We failed miserably in our response. And we’re currently doing nothing to prepare for the possibility of a follow-on – an even worse attack.
- » Russia has threatened nuclear war over Ukraine.

⚠ WARNING: We are in grave danger! It is time to be alert to what is really going on and fight for America.

In this briefing we will discuss the following:

- » Our intelligence community is failing miserably to protect America.
- » America may be compromised at the highest levels.
- » Our enemies want to control America.
- » Apprehension over China’s economic and biological ambitions.
- » Select Committee on the Strategic Competition Between the United States and the Chinese Communist Party.
- » We must respond to the economic war.

Page 1

YOUR MISSION: Acknowledge the threat. Then refuse to allow defeat. Rather fight, and fight again to win for America and the world.

ATTENTION: America is being invaded at the highest level and our leaders are being controlled by treacherous enemies who want to see America collapse.

Ep. 6-228 (OSINT) Open-Sourced Intelligence Report. This briefing includes a conversation between Kevin Freeman and Sam Faddis. Sam is a former US Army officer, a trial attorney, and a career undercover CIA operations officer. He's spent decades thinking about, investigating, and studying what our enemies are doing and helping to decide what should be done to protect America.

Sam is also the Senior Editor for And Magazine at Substack, a national security commentator, and a fellow member of the Committee on the Present Danger China.

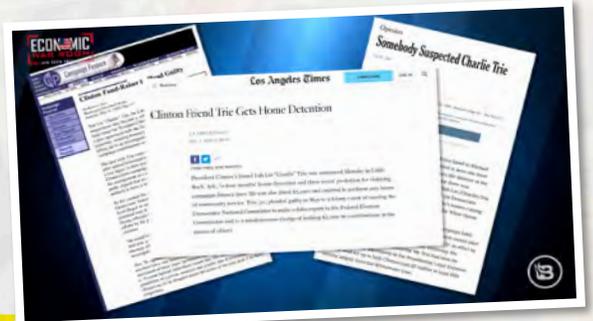

1. Existential Threats Within America? You Might be Surprised!

Lessons in History

China's penetration into our political system started in Arkansas

In 1996, Yah Lin "Charlie" Trie, a Little Rock Chinese restaurant owner, was funneling money into the Democrats and the Clinton campaign for the Chinese Communist Party.

- » It's all acknowledged they were interfering in our election. No question about it.
- » It was covered by The Washington Post, L.A. Times, New York Times.
- » China's infiltration in American politics was uncovered here!
- » Everybody acknowledged they did that when it was discovered, but over time they swept it under the rug.

In 2016, with President Trump, they brought out all kinds of false allegations of Russian interference.

- » Just 20 years after Clinton's scandal and the media was making something out of nothing over Trump and Russia while ignoring the facts of what was very real between China and the Democrat campaign.
- » In our lifetime, that was the beginning of when the Chinese started to buy the Democrats. To be fair, they have also bought Republicans.

"Treason" is another word that gets overused. But treason is appropriate in this context.

It's been happening for centuries: Money and greed can corrupt even over loyalty to your country, relatives or fellow citizens.

In 1453, Constantinople, the capital of the Byzantine Empire, fell which ended Christendom in the region. It's the Ottoman Turks at the gates in an expressly religious war. Islam against Christianity.

Who's the guy who built the cannons that knocked down the walls of Constantinople? He was a Christian Hungarian cannon maker who went to work for the Sultan.

- » Why? Because he saw the writing on the wall. He bet his money on those guys and he was getting paid.
- » So, he's blasting the holes that the Janissaries are going to use to go in and slaughter his fellow Christians.
- » He didn't care because he was counting the gold that they put in his hand.

The Lesson:

As horrible as this sounds above, it is where we are with so many of our political leaders today. They don't care. They are bought and sold, unfortunately, in both political parties.

2. Our Intelligence Community is Failing Miserably to Protect America.

America has two big problems. We do not use our Intelligence information correctly or we are not even collecting it.

- » First, we can collect all the intelligence in the world and hand it to policymakers. But if policymakers don't intend to do anything with it, it's a waste of time.
 - Prior to 9/11, we didn't have the specifics on the attack, but we certainly knew that Bin Laden had already attacked us multiple times and was coming for us. That was inconvenient for Bill Clinton. So, we let the attack mature. Even the Chinese authors of Unrestricted Warfare mentioned Bin Laden as early as 1999 and discussed attacks on the World Trade Center, nearly three years before 9/11.
- » Second, we're not collecting intelligence. In many cases, it's impossible for us to collect it. For example:
 - We gave up Afghanistan. We have no access to the area. You tell me you want to spy inside the Taliban in Kabul. How?
 - How magically are we going to recruit a spy in Kabul, on the ground in Afghanistan and communicate with him when I can't get there?

Why did we desert Afghanistan? You Decide:

- » Pulling out of Afghanistan was the most grotesque incompetence ever seen, or...
- » Chilling as it is, we're looking at deliberate malfeasance.

There was no reason for us to completely abandon Afghanistan.

- » Giving up the idea of turning Afghanistan into Switzerland in Central Asia was long overdue.
- » The idea of pulling all Americans out and going blind was not a reasonable thing.
- » The national security implications were completely foreseeable, but we did it anyway.
- » We'll pay a ponderous and persistent price – people will die consequently.

Incompetent or Intentional?

“I do not subscribe to Joe; his advisors just happened to be the most incompetent team in American history and get every decision wrong. I think you are watching guys who, frankly, are playing for the other team. They are not focused on American national security. They’ve got a completely different agenda.” —Sam Faddis

Incompetence or Intentional? More Examples

Bagram – A Terrifying Example.

The Russians built a huge base at Bagram. America turned it into a giant air base in South Asia from which we can deploy aircraft and dominate that whole region of the world.

- » We handed the entire base to the Chinese. They are on the ground there now.
- » Pretending like that didn’t happen but that doesn’t, of course, change the reality.
- » Just that one piece of the Afghan puzzle is dramatic. And we gave that massive air base to the Chinese.

The Chilling Reality of Hunter’s Laptop.

“I still retain access to a copy of the hard drive. I’ve seen the laptop. I think everything about this case screams espionage.” —Sam Faddis

Look at what the laptop contains:

- » Foreign payments went to the Biden family.
- » Documents that apparently were accessible by Hunter and anyone he was doing business with. It’s frightening!
- » The intelligence community is willfully blind to this – they have turned it aside for political purposes and political reasons.
- » Consider the amount of money and information involved. Now, the classified documents become a major issue.
- » If anybody else on earth had this information turned up about them, they’re in custody, they’re in handcuffs, and will be sent to the federal penitentiary.

It’s a national security threat!

3. America Has Been Compromised at the Very Top Level.

The central thing that people need to understand is we have apparently been compromised at the very top level.

It's not just Joe Biden, but his national security team.

- » National security commentators are always talking about carrier battle groups and hypersonic missiles and all this kind of stuff. That's all great.
- » None of that means anything if your national command authority – your Commander in Chief – is compromised.
- » That changes fundamentally everything.
- » When our enemies know about that compromise, they're not just emboldened, they are already taking advantage of this window of opportunity.

China's Intent to Conquer Taiwan Could Ignite a Hot War and Economic Armageddon.

- » Taiwan is unfinished business for China because they're considered a breakaway province. China regards it as an internal matter. So, it doesn't matter to the rest of the world – Taiwan belongs to them.
- » There's no way on earth that Xi Jinping looks at this situation with the guy in the White House, who he views as owned by him, and doesn't move on Taiwan.
- » People need to understand, that's not just bad news for Taiwan, it could very well ignite World War III – an economic and human Armageddon.
- » When the supply of chips stops flowing, when all trade stops moving in that part of the world, the whole world economy crashes.
- » That blockade could go into effect on any given day. China has ships and aircraft already in position. The only thing missing is them saying we're formally blockading Taiwan.
- » How much confidence do you have that Joe Biden will direct the Seventh Fleet to break that blockade?

If access to high-end semiconductors, the best in the world from Taiwan, is shut off, the world economy will be severely paralyzed.

- » It will force America into a war posture.
- » It's a disturbing idea if our command structure is compromised, "controlled" actually, by the Chinese Communist Party.

4. Our Enemies Want to Control America.

"Control" is another thing about espionage that the average person doesn't understand and there's no reason they should. They have normal lives and don't wander around scouting this arcane world.

Spies know how to use tactics to transform people into "controlled assets."

- » Spies typically don't blackmail people, and they don't "sort of hope" that they'll give you something, and then you'll "kind of" lean in their direction. That's what diplomats do – we give you something and hope you support us.
- » Spies crawl into people's heads, figure out what buttons to push, and then push those buttons and they transform you into a "controlled asset." That is the term used in the trade.
- » If you don't control your asset, he's not considered recruited.
- » They're not asking you, "Pretty please, could you think about doing something for us?" They own you!

Controlling your asset is a real thing and happens all the time.

- » Heads of state and key politicians all over the world get recruited all the time and turned into controlled assets.

"Controlled asset is what I'm talking about with Biden. I've used that term repeatedly. I'll keep using it. It is a very real danger that Joe Biden is controlled by Beijing." —Sam Faddis

Is Biden Compromised?

Faddis asks, “Who is really meeting with President Biden?” The lack of record-keeping and logs is concerning.

Undocumented, high-level meetings at the President’s home are kept secret.

- » Americans have no idea who’s visiting him at the private residence. There’s no record keeping of the logs.
- » The Secret Service is supposed to vet people that come in.
- » President Biden doesn’t go to Camp David for a very clear reason because it’s still official government property. And therefore, the Secret Service would keep logs and they would know who came in and out and America would know who came in and out.
- » So, he goes to his Delaware home for one reason, which is for people to come in and out unseen.
- » God knows what the other purposes are.

Classified Documents.

- » Let’s understand, these are not minor documents. This is top-secret stuff.
- » It’s critical. It’s potentially fatal to American national security.
- » They should never leave controlled spaces.
- » You don’t put it in your jacket pocket and then get home and find out you forgot about it.
- » If it’s leaving controlled spaces, you are right there deliberately violating federal law and committing a felony.
- » Now the special counsel is finding more documents. There seems to be no end to this.

Donald Trump was accused of nonsensical stuff, like “You’ve got nuclear launch codes lying around.”

“Nuclear launch codes.” That’s an interesting Hollywood construct that is used in plots all the time.

The Problem - “Nuclear launch codes” don’t exist, especially in the form that Hollywood says they do.

Now, “magically” something that doesn’t exist in reality was found in Donald Trump’s house. That’s absurd. It’s made up.

- Even then, it was not parked next to his Corvette in the garage that was sometimes opened and sometimes closed.
- It was locked up in a secure facility that’s controlled and protected by the Secret Service.

Look at Joe Biden – A suspiciously wealthy, life-long public servant.

- » At the age of 29, Joe Biden went into the Senate and has been a public servant basically his entire life.
- » He maintains two households, even on a senator’s salary, you don’t have a lot of change rattling around at the end of the day.
- » How is it that Joe Biden has all this money to buy antique classic Corvettes and two mansions and all this stuff? Where did that come from?
- » If you added up all his salary that he got from the U.S. taxpayers, it wouldn’t amount to enough money to pay for everything he owns.
- » Who is paying Joe Biden, exactly?

It’s very, very, very dirty. We saw that in the laptop. Over $45 million has been shown through Hunter Biden, and that’s just what has been seen. Then we have the Ukrainian money and everything else. It’s very, very, very dirty. And our media is unwilling to discuss it because he’s their guy and national security doesn’t matter, apparently. –Sam Faddis

⚠️ ALERT: With a controlled asset in the White House, the Chinese may be deciding to invade Taiwan, which would disrupt the global economy.

5. Apprehension Over China's Economic and Biological Ambitions.

Let's look at some of the potential threats from China.

- 1) Americans should be worried that China is going to try and take down the US dollar and replace it with the digital yuan.
- 2) Will China release a biological weapon?
- 3) Are there other weapons that they're set to release?

⚠️ ALERT: "America obviously needs to investigate Joe Biden and China. A real investigation, not a pro forma let's sweep everything under the rug and move on kind of thing. We've got to roll back the tape to when we climbed in bed with the communist Chinese, if we're just talking about that threat." —Sam Faddis

We fed the dragon to be stronger and more vicious.

America was sold on the idea that this was all cool because China was going to liberalize and democratize, and we were going to turn them into a friendly power.

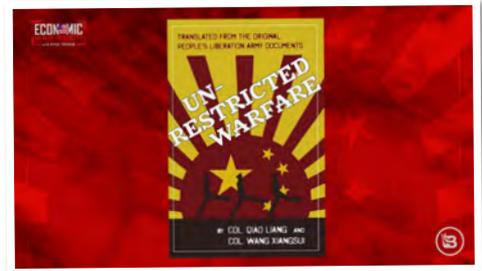

- » It's not known to what extent the people that sold us that bill of goods ever believed it or how much of it was propaganda designed to get the American people to support it.
- » That didn't work out. We made the dragon bigger, stronger, more vicious, more capable of controlling and crushing its own people. We fed the monster.

The Solution Begins with Admitting Our Self-destructive Path.

- » We are destroying the republic and enabling our enemy. And we've got to go back and revisit that decision.
- » We've got to climb out of bed, economically, with the Chinese Communist Party.

In 1999, when the book Unrestricted Warfare was published, China's economy was 1/10 the size of the American economy. It was roughly on par with Italy. And nobody sees the Italian economy as a globalist threat.

- » China got there by gaining the “most favored nation status.”
- » There were a lot of bad trade deals that America did.
- » Donald Trump was right about so much. We favored them in so many ways.
- » The globalist movement allows China to be exempt from the clean air and carbon dioxide emissions goals.

ATTENTION: Not only are we giving the Chinese the means they need to build a nuclear weapons arsenal and a navy to threaten us, but we're also giving them the money to buy influence in the United States.

6. The Select Committee on the Strategic Competition Between the United States and the Chinese Communist Party.

The House just voted to establish a committee to investigate Chinese actions.

WARNING - WARNING - WARNING - WARNING - WARNING!!!!!!!

65 Democratic House of Representatives, Democratic congressmen, and congresswomen, stood up and voted against it, branding it as anti-Asian sentiment and racism.

Faddis explains, that line is straight out of Beijing's playbook. Xi Jinping must have written those talking points.

- » This also shows that there are 65 Congress people who are owned by the Chinese Communist Party. I mean they have self-identified, that's the good news.
- » So, forget about Eric Swalwell and Christine Fang. This is not about one guy.

This is about China targeting on an industrial scale, buying the American elite. And that's the real danger.

- » We need to turn the ship, but we have people on board that are working for the other side and don't want to turn the ship.
- » They are already sold out. They've already accepted that the Chinese will win this.

“If we have a controlled asset in the White House, we’re going to lose this economic war, which means that we’ve got to empower and encourage the House of Representatives to do the investigations, to root out the serious causes and problems that we’re seeing there.” —Kevin Freeman

7. We Must Be a Part of the Economic War.

Important - China is largely waging war against us and the way we fight back is to stop investing in them.

President Reagan said, “Here’s how you solve the Cold War. We win and they lose.”

There is no other option because we must win.

- Rule number one: The good guys always win.
- Rule number two: If we lose, we play again.
- We keep playing until we come out on top. That’s all there is to it.
- We’re not going to accept another option.

We still have hope. And our hope is in God with us doing our part, the Economic War Room® and all the people following it. Our intention is to train 10,000 financial advisors to weaponize a trillion dollars of capital, to educate as many people as possible on this threat that we’re seeing.

“America, I’m not going quietly into that good night. As Dylan Thomas said in his poem, ‘Do not go gentle into that good night.’ I’m not going gently!” —Kevin Freeman

“I refuse to acknowledge the possibility of defeat. And I always say, I don’t know how long the fight is, I just know that when it’s over – we win. So, we will win. I won’t contemplate otherwise.” —Sam Faddis

2. Demand that America climbs out of bed, economically, with the Chinese Communist Party.
3. Encourage and support the new Select Committee on the Strategic Competition Between the United States and the Chinese Communist Party.

4. Continuously encourage and support lawmakers for doing the right thing.
 - a. Don't blast them if they're not quite there yet but encourage them from a positive perspective and always ask more of them.
 - b. They need that type of reinforcement because there are a lot more powerful economic forces that are going to be demanding that they do less.
 - c. They need our positive reinforcement.
5. Hold our political and corporate leaders to high moral standards that benefit the growth and security of America.
6. Challenge and hold mainstream media to the highest moral standards, demanding that they seek and report the truth, and avoid politicization of the news, especially as it concerns our political leaders.
7. Stand against political, economic, and corporate collectivists by promoting freedom of speech, capitalism, creativity and staunch individualism.
8. Ask God to empower you to stand up and speak out against evil – to be a true advocate of truth, justice, and liberty in America and across the world.
