Dear [REDACTED]

NOTICE OF CANCELLATION OF SERVICE APPROVAL
Section 77, Education and Care Services National Law (ACT) Act 2011 (National Law)

As a delegate of the ACT Regulatory Authority (the Authority), I notify you that I am cancelling the service approval for Cherry Tree Family Day Care, SE-40015126. The cancellation will take effect 14 days from the date of this notice.

Consistent with Section 77 of the National Law, I am cancelling the service approval on the following grounds:

- (a) The service has been suspended under section 72 and has not operated for a period of 12 months, and the grounds for which the voluntary suspension of the service approval was agreed by the Authority have not been rectified at or before the end date of the suspension.

Right to external review

Under section 193 of the National Law, you may apply for an external review of this decision with the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal. An application must be lodged within 30 days after you are notified of the decision or become aware of the decision. An application can be completed and printed from <http://www.acat.act.gov.au>. If you are unable to access the website please contact the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal on 6207 1740.

If you have any questions about this notice, please contact Delphine Coutin at delphine.coutin@act.gov.au or on 6207 1114.
