Background

On 24 May 2023 Children’s Education and Care Assurance (CECA) was notified by the approved provider of an allegation that an unknown man attempted to lure two boys from Aranda After School Care.

No children were harmed or missing because of the incident.

The approved provider advised CECA that ACT Policing were called and attended the service.

Children disclosed that an unknown man attempted to lure 8 year-old boys away from the service at about 5pm on 23 May 2023.

CECA is expecting additional information about the incident from the provider, including addressing any risks identified as result of the incident.

The provider is assisting police and families of the children attending the service were contacted about the incident.

Issues

The incident may attract media attention.

Next steps

CECA will assess information submitted to ensure any risks are being appropriately managed and mitigated.
