

SASKATCHEWAN

AN EQUAL VOICE PROVINCE SNAPSHOT, 2026

Saskatchewan (Sask.) has not yet had a woman serve as premier, nor has its legislature achieved gender parity by having women make up at least half of its MLAs. However, the current leader of the opposition is a woman (Carla Beck, Saskatchewan NDP). She was the third female opposition leader. The Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan seats 61 members, of which 21 are women (34.4%). Sask.'s last election took place in October 2024.

GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

Sask. has a unicameral legislature, with one chamber: the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan. As a parliamentary democracy, Sask. has 61 constituencies which are each represented by an elected Member of the Legislative Assembly (MLA).

The political party with the most elected MLAs forms government, and their leader becomes the head of government, called the Premier. The Premier selects MLAs to serve as Cabinet Ministers.

The Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan is appointed by the Governor General of Canada and represents the King, Canada's Head of State.
