January 16, 2024

Fellow Republicans,

I am writing you today regarding the delegate selection process for the 2024 Republican National Convention to be held July 15 – July 18, 2024 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Anyone who wishes to become a delegate or alternate delegate should submit the delegate qualifying form to the RPOF at least 3 days before each congressional district caucus meeting to elect delegates. Due to the high demand for the Party's limited delegate spots, we are asking that everyone that wishes to become a delegate run in their congressional district caucuses. For clarity, I have outlined in the steps below the process by which one can become a delegate.

1. Go to www.florida.gov/delegatefl. There you will find a place to download the delegate qualifying form, obtain a listing of CD Caucus meetings and dates for the entire state as they are scheduled, receive important information and updates about the convention, and view a list of frequently asked questions.
2. If you would like to become a delegate, download and print the qualifying form from the website and fill it out.
3. Send the form to:

Republican Party of Florida
Attention: George Riley

Tallahassee, FL 32301

*RPOF is not responsible for lost or misdirected forms. As a result, we highly recommend that you send the form through FedEx or another carrier that allows you to track the progress and delivery of your document. Delegate qualifying forms will not be accepted via email.

4. Each CD Caucus will meet on a specific date scheduled between March 26th through May 31st, 2024. At those meetings, three delegates and three alternate delegates for each congressional district will be elected from the list of qualified candidates.
