Rules of Association for Fusion Political Party

Note: The people who from time to time are Members of the Association are an incorporated association by the name given in rule 1 of these Rules.

Under section 46 of the Associations Incorporation Reform Act 2012, these Rules are taken to constitute the terms of a contract between the Association and its Members.

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1. Name

- 1) The name of the incorporated association is "Fusion Political Party". In this document the incorporated association is also referred to as the "Association".
- 2) The Association has previously been known as "Climate Emergency Action Alliance: Vote Planet".

Note: Under section 23 of the Act, the name of the Association and its registration number must appear on all its business documents.

2. Purposes

- 1) The purposes of the Association are to—
 - a) enable its membership to register as a formal political party at federal, state, territory, and local government levels.
 - b) advance any shared policy or platform agreed to by the membership.
 - c) facilitate the advancement of branch approved policy and platforms.
 - d) achieve the above goals through
 - i) public education and political and non-political campaigning, including running candidates for election at all levels of government, and
 - ii) providing an organisational vehicle for groups of like minded members to organise and subsequently advocate for and advance focus areas of special interest, insofar as this does not conflict with the value framework.
- 2) To further these purposes, the Association must develop capacity in the following areas—
 - a) establishment of its organisational elements;
 - b) ongoing organisational management;
 - c) managing formal registration as a political party federally and in various states and territories of Australia as appropriate;
 - d) election campaigning;
 - e) community mobilisation;
 - f) issue based campaigning; and
 - g) providing the organisational vehicle that can coordinate and facilitate the above on behalf of the Association's Branches.

3. Values

- 1) The Association will utilise a framework for aligning the values and principles of its constituent branches into a synergistic and compatible structure which will be considered the “Fusion Value Framework”.
- 2) Branches may operate with their own value frameworks insofar as they:
 - a) materially align with the framework of the Association,
 - b) are not shown to be in material conflict with the framework of the Association.
- 3) Changing the value framework should not be undertaken lightly. Undertaking a review of the value framework must be the result of a decision of the committee identifying a capacity in which the framework is insufficient for, or in conflict with, the needs and direction of the Association.
- 4) The value framework will only be reviewed for potential change according to a structured process that is recognised as appropriate for the task.

Note: The original framework was formulated using the GFMAM methodology for developing an asset management framework with the philosophy of “Policy as an Asset”.

- 5) Changes to the value framework must be ratified by the Committee and the committees of the Association’s branches so long as:
 - a) the branch attends to reviewing it within a period of not greater than 3 months,
 - b) the branch is capable of fulfilling a quorum for the decision according to their internal processes within the period in question.
- 6) The inability of a branch to attend to the matter within the required timeframe may not block the revision of the value framework, but the association is responsible for taking reasonable steps to ensure that they do not create a material conflict with a framework of the branch if it maintains one.
- 7) Changes to the value framework will be communicated to the members not later than the next applicable general meeting.
- 8) It should be possible to communicate the alignment of the policy of the Association to the value framework.

4. Financial year

- 1) The financial year of the Association is each period of 12 months ending on 30 June.

- 5) If the Committee rejects the application, it must return any money accompanying the application to the applicant.

Dispute Resolution Process including first and final appeal processes

19. Dispute Resolution Committee

- 1) The Committee shall facilitate a Dispute Resolution Committee (DRC) to attend to any disciplinary matters arising (as per rule 19), complaints or concerns of a potential breach of the Code of Conduct to determine what action, if any, should be taken or recommended to the Committee.
- 2) The DRC shall comprise five members that:
 - a) are democratically elected by the membership; and
 - b) hold no other office on the Committee, or named position appointed by the Committee, or equivalent office within a branch of the Association, except for other elected positions solely existing for the purpose of providing dispute resolution capacity;
- 3) Any member elected to the DRC shall as soon as practicable familiarise themselves with Division 2 of the constitution.
- 4) The DRC shall self-appoint three of its five members for the purposes of a particular proceeding. This margin exists to allow for:
 - a) the recusement of a DRC member who may be considered to foster bias or possess a conflict of interest in a particular case;
 - b) a proceeding to be reviewed in a process of appeal by a majoritively different committee, with one representative for informational continuity.
- 5) In instances of possible confusion around the interpretation of this constitution, the DRC shall be invoked to function as interpreters of this document, and their decisions recorded.

20. Notice to member

- 1) Before disciplinary action is taken against a Member, the Secretary must give written notice to the Member:
 - a) stating that the Association proposes to take disciplinary action against the Member;

- 1) At the disciplinary meeting, the DRC must—
 - a) give the Member an opportunity to be heard; and
 - b) consider any written statement submitted by the Member.
- 2) After complying with sub-rule (1), the DRC may—
 - a) take no further action against the Member; or
 - b) subject to sub-rule (3)—
 - i) reprimand the Member;
 - ii) suspend the membership rights of the Member for a specified period;
 - c) recommend that the Committee—
 - i) expel the Member from the Association;
 - ii) disendorse the Member as a candidate; or
 - iii) disendorse the Member as an elected representative of the Association.
- 3) The DRC may not fine the Member.
- 4) The suspension of membership rights or the expulsion of a Member by the DRC under this rule takes effect immediately after the vote is passed.
- 5) If a recommendation is submitted by the DRC, the Committee must vote to uphold or reject the recommendation, after which the DRC may take alternative lesser action if the recommendation is rejected.
- 6) The Member will be notified of the DRC decision as soon as is practically possible after the DRC decision.

Note: A lesser action is defined in order as they are listed in subrule (2), the least significant being a reprimand and the most significant being expulsion.

22. Appealing a decision of the DRC

- 1) Any decision of the DRC may be appealed by request of the member against which action has been taken, so long as the member can acquire the support of either;
 - a) a member of the Committee,
 - b) a member of the DRC,
 - c) an approved candidate of the Party, or
 - d) an elected representative of the Party.
- 2) The sponsoring member for the appeal must submit to the DRC the additional considerations to be addressed in the appeal.
- 3) The DRC must then review the case again with a majoritively different committee, barring the necessity for DRC members to recuse themselves for personal conflicts of interest.

- 4) The DRC committee for the appeal may uphold, reject, or modify the decision of the previous committee.
- 5) Any decision of the DRC, other than a suspension or a recommendation of expulsion, is final after the appeal.
- 6) A member subject to a suspension or expulsion can choose to appeal any final decision of the DRC as per Rule 24.

23. Final appeal rights for suspension or expulsion

- 1) A person whose membership rights have been suspended or who has been expelled from the Association may give notice to the effect that they wish to appeal against the suspension or expulsion.
- 2) The notice must be in writing and given—
 - a) to the DRC immediately after the vote to suspend or expel the person is taken; or
 - b) to the Secretary not later than 48 hours after notification of the member according to 22(6).
- 3) If a person has given notice under sub-rule (2), a disciplinary appeal meeting must be convened by the Committee as soon as practicable, but in any event not later than 21 days after the notice is received.
- 4) Notice of the disciplinary appeal meeting must be given to each Member of the Association who is entitled to vote as soon as practicable and must—
 - a) specify the date, time and place of the meeting; and
 - b) state—

 - a) no business other than the question of the appeal may be conducted;
 - b) the Committee must state the grounds for suspending or expelling the Member and the reasons for taking that action; and
 - c) the person whose membership of the Association has been suspended or who has been expelled must be given an opportunity to be heard.
- 2) After complying with sub-rule (1), the Members present and entitled to vote at the meeting must vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the decision to suspend or expel the person should be upheld or revoked.

- 3) A Member may not vote by proxy at the meeting.
- 4) The disciplinary appeal meeting requires a quorum of not less than twice the size of the Committee.
- 5) The decision to suspend or expel a member is upheld if less than three quarters of the Members voting at the meeting vote to revoke the decision, or if the quorum is unable to be met.
- 6) The decision of the disciplinary appeal meeting is final.

PART 8—SPECIAL RULES

Division 1—Voting method for Association elections

80. Elections that are covered

- 1) These procedures must be applied to—
 - a) the election of candidates for parliamentary elections held by the Association; and
- 2) Rules* made under these Rules to govern other elections may require that ballots must—
 - a) be conducted in conformity with this Division; and
 - b) be secret.

(* e.g. binding policies and procedures in the Operations Manual and operating rules for units of the Association.)

81. Voting system

- 1) The voting method that must be used is optional preferential modified to allow the selection of the option: “Seek further candidates”.

82. Modes – physical, postal, online

- 1) Ballots governed by this Division may be conducted in a physical meeting, by post or using a secure online facility.

83. Returning officers

- 1) The unit of the Association responsible for the conduct of a ballot governed by this Division must appoint a returning officer to manage the ballot process.
- 2) Where the conduct of a ballot involves more than one physical location, the returning officer must appoint an assistant returning officer for each physical location.
- 3) Returning officers, including assistants, must not be candidates in the ballot.

84. Scrutineers

- 1) A candidate may appoint one scrutineer for each location where tallying of votes for the candidate is being conducted.

85. Election integrity

- 1) Returning officers must prepare ballot papers in such a way that they are identifiably official and so that they cannot be forged.

- 2) Ballot papers, electronic voting records and any tally data must be handled securely so that the validity of the ballot is assured.
- 3) All Members have a duty to ensure that ballots are conducted in accordance with these Rules and without mistakes or corruption.

86. Secret ballots

- 1) Secret ballots must be held for—
 - a) the election of office bearer members of the Committee;
 - b) the election of candidates for parliamentary elections.

87. Ballot papers

- 1) Subject to sub-rule (2), ballot forms must have the candidates' names listed and include a voting option of "Seek further candidates".
- 2) If candidates for a ballot are to be finalised at the meeting where the ballot is to take place, the returning officer in charge may decide to use blank ballot papers or ballots with no candidates names on them and if this is the case the returning officer must instruct voters to write the names of the candidates on the ballot paper and, if not already on the ballot papers, the option of "Seek further candidates".

88. Candidates rights

- 1) Candidates must be given an equal opportunity to provide voters with a short statement in support of their candidacy prior to the ballot and the returning officer in charge may determine whether the statement is to be in writing or in spoken form or both.

89. Voting

- 1) Returning officers must inform voters of the voting procedure and their rights and obligations under this Division.
- 2) A voter must be provided with a ballot paper for their personal use plus one ballot paper for each proxy that they hold (up to the maximum permitted number).
- 3) Voters must number candidates in order of declining preference, beginning with 1 and moving to the next larger whole number for each subsequent preference until there are no further candidates or the voter no longer wishes to express a preference at which point they may choose the "Seek further candidates" option.

90. Tallying of votes

- 1) Votes will be deemed to be valid, despite technical errors in recording the vote, provided the intention of the voter is clear and unambiguous and can be interpreted by a reasonable person as following the intent of the voting procedure.

Note If a number is missed in a voting sequence on a ballot paper, eg. 1, 2, 4, 5 or 2, 3, 4, 5 the order of candidate preference is clear and so the ballot paper would not be invalid. If the numbers were 1, 2, 2, 3 this vote would not be valid as a sequential preference for two candidates was not indicated.

2) Tallying of the vote must follow these steps—

- a) Determining a quota: a quota must be determined using the following formula, with the result rounded up to the next highest whole number—

Rule: $(\text{number of voters}/(\text{number of positions to fill} + 1)) + 1$

Example: Where there are 100 voters and 7 positions $(100/(7+1))+1 = (100/8)+1 = 12.5 + 1 = 13.5 = 14$ after rounding up.

- b) Determining first preference results: each ballot paper on which the name of a candidate has been marked with a 1 (ie. received a first preference) must be counted as one vote for that candidate;
- c) Determining if a candidate has achieved a quota with first preferences: if any candidate has received at least a quota of votes based solely on their first preference votes then that candidate must be declared elected;
- d) Full value preferences and reduced value preferences: If a candidate gets more than a quota of votes, then the value of that excess may need to be passed on to the other candidates in proportion to the next preference of the voters of the elected candidate; and the candidate without a quota who has the least number of votes must have their votes passed on at full value to the other unelected candidates in accordance with the next preference of the voters for that candidate;
- e) Calculating the reduced value of votes distributed from an elected candidate: The reduced value of first preference votes to be distributed from an elected candidate must be calculated using the following formula—

Rule: $(\text{total first preference votes} - \text{quota})/\text{quota}$

Example Where the quota is 25 and the total number of first preference votes for an elected candidate is 37:

$$(37-25) / 25 = (12 \div 25) = 0.48$$

i.e. if a bundle of 100 votes was distributed to a candidate at 0.48 value then the value of the bundle of votes would be $100 \times 0.48 = 48$.

- f) Calculating the reduced value of already reduced value votes to be transferred from an elected candidate: The reduced value of already reduced value votes to be distributed from an elected candidate must be calculated using the following formula—

Rule: Current value discount x ((Total calculated value of votes held by candidate-quota)/quota)

Example Where the quota is 25 and the total value of votes for an elected candidate is 37 and the current value discount of reduced value votes is 0.3: $0.3x((37-25)\div 25)$ $(0.3)x(12\div 25) = 0.3x0.48 = 0.144$

i.e. if a bundle of 100 votes was distributed to a candidate at 0.144 value then the value of the bundle of votes would be $100 \times 0.144 = \mathbf{14.4}$.

Note: The above examples may require additional research and advice to effectively manage elections. recording ballots into spreadsheets and developing appropriate coding is one way to calculate election outcomes effectively.

- g) Keeping the reduced value attached to the votes: As reduced value votes are distributed from an elected candidate to below-quota candidates, the calculated reduced value of those votes must be kept attached in either a physical sense or in an accounting sense to each bundle of those votes, so that they are always counted at the correct reduced value;
 - h) Distributing preferences (quota excess): Candidates that have achieved a quota (and have therefore been elected) must have the transferable value of all their votes distributed to the other candidates in accordance with the next preference of their voters – and this distribution must start with the candidate with the largest quota excess; and the votes must be transferred at the value calculated in sub-rules (e) and (f); this process continues until there are no excess quotas to distribute, and then the distribution process in sub-rule (i) is activated;
 - i) Distributing preferences (under quota): When there are candidates with votes below a quota, and not all the positions have been filled and the option “Seek other candidates” has not achieved a quota, then the votes of the below-quota candidate with the lowest value of votes must be distributed, at their current value, to the other non-elected candidates; and this process of distributing the votes of the lowest vote candidate must be repeated until another candidate gains a quota (triggering the process under sub-rule (h) or until all positions are filled or the option “Seek other candidates” achieves a quota and ends the tally process;
 - j) Breaking a tie when distributing preferences: If two or more candidates with the lowest number of below-quota votes, or candidates with the highest number of above- quota votes have an equal value of votes, then the returning officer must arrange for a person who is not a candidate to undertake a blind draw to select at random one candidate who will have their preferences distributed next.
 - k) A quota for “Seek further candidates” ends the tally: If the option “Seek further candidates” gains a quota, the filling of further positions must cease.
- 3) When the tally is completed the outcome must be declared by the returning officer in charge.

91. Seeking further candidates

- 1) If the option “Seek further candidates” gains a quota, the relevant unit of the Association
- 2) must initiate a process to seek further candidates and to hold a supplementary election to fill the unfilled position(s).

- 11) If a Branch has no elected member, the Branch may disaffiliate from the Association, provided that this occurs between 6 and 18 months after a general election.
- 12) A Branch may not leave the Association during the first parliamentary term of any Party member elected as part of the Association.

Note: Branches are not state branches as referred to by the AEC.

93. Local Campaign Teams

- 1) A Local Campaign Team may be established by—
 - a) one or more Branches; or
 - b) an Election Campaign Committee
 - c) the Committee.
- 2) The purpose of a Local Campaign Team is to carry out a defined campaign, whether electoral or non-electoral.

- 3) When a Local Campaign Team is established it must be given a charter of purposes by the unit(s) that establish it.
- 4) The charter of purposes may be renegotiated at any time by the Local Campaign Team and the unit(s) that establish it, but the establishment unit(s) have the final say.

94. Spokespeople

95. Leadership

- 1) The Association chooses to work in a cooperative manner to forward its objectives through a range of defined roles in committees, subcommittees or individuals delegated specific tasks or roles—consequently the Association does not have a single organisational leader but instead this role is exercised through the roles of President, Convener and National Campaigns Coordinator, and Branch executives.
- 2) Members must not adopt the shorthand of referring to any Association office bearer or official as the 'leader', rather they must be referred to by their title/role.

96. Maximum consecutive terms for Association office bearers and members of elected committees

- 1) Association office bearers are not eligible to stand for re-election to the same office-bearing position when they have filled the position for three consecutive terms.

97. General fund-raising by Branches and Local Campaign Teams

- 1) Branches and Local Campaign Teams are encouraged to fund-raise to support their election and non-election campaigning and Branch development.
- 2) It is Association policy to encourage a cultural norm that Branches and Local Campaign Teams redistribute a small proportion of any money raised in the following manner—
 - a) if money is raised through an election campaign, then 10% is given to the relevant Electoral Campaign Committee; or
 - b) if money is raised through non-election campaigning, then 5% is given to the Committee to support weaker Branches and 5% is given to the Committee to support the administration of the Association.

Note The Association favours having strong Branches because this builds a strong organisation, but it is also true that each Branch benefits from having a strong organisation that strengthens the Branches appeal to the local community.

- 3) Additional money raised under sub clause (2)(a) but not spent on the election may be either:
 - a) kept for use in the next equivalent election (i.e. money raised during a federal campaign but not spent is spent at the next federal election); or

- 4) Policies and procedures must not contradict these Rules.
- 5) Policies and procedures that are binding can be created to limit (but not expand) the discretions available under these Rules.
- 6) If a policy or procedure is binding this must be indicated clearly in the policy or procedure.

Division 3—Electoral Matters

99. Candidates

- 1) Candidate selection is the responsibility of Branches and all candidates for elected positions must first go through a Branch nomination and selection process prior to formal endorsement by the Association.
 - a) in the case of multi member upper house seats, the candidate's position on the ballot must be defined during the selection process.
- 2) All candidates endorsed by the Association or Branch must declare in writing their commitment to the Association's Code of Conduct.
- 3) The Association's Code of Conduct is determined by the committee or delegated sub committee. This must be a publicly available document.

Note: Having convictions associated with protest activity aligned with advancing the purposes of the association or branch or branches do not automatically disqualify a candidate from endorsement by the association.

- 4) Candidates who are seeking to develop local profiles over the longer term may be endorsed for two consecutive elections.
- 5) Candidates seeking endorsement for two elections must undertake to campaign between elections and outline their proposal for doing so to the satisfaction of whoever is responsible for candidate selection at their Branch and then again for the Association prior to formal endorsement.

100. Contesting Elections

- 1) If a Branch chooses to contest an election and seek formal candidate endorsement of the Association the Association must contest the election in electorates where the Association has formal party registration, unless no suitable candidate is endorsed.

101. Forming an Election Campaign Committee

- 1) If an election will be contested with candidates endorsed by the Association and a relevant Election Campaign Committee does not exist, the Committee must—

- a) decide whether to set up an Election Campaign Committee (to oversee and if necessary organise the election campaign) and the Committee has the power to create Election Campaign Committee for this purpose; or
- b) act as the Election Campaign Committee itself.

Note: If the Committee decides not to create a separate Election Campaign Committee and to take on that role itself, then where the Rules refer to an Election Campaign Committee that means the Committee.

Note: If only one Branch is contesting any given election the Committee may decide to devolve all functions normally managed by an Election Campaign Committee other than the submitting of relevant candidate registration and electoral returns on behalf of the Association. A Branch may still request the Committee to form or act as an Electoral Campaign Committee to support the election campaign being run by the Branch.

102. Electoral Funding

- 1) The following rules apply to distribution of electoral funding subject to the relevant state, territory and federal laws.

- a) in the case of cash for votes system—

- i) 5% for administration of Association
- ii) 10% for shared election expenses
- iii) 40% for distributions to Branches on a per candidate basis excluding any candidates that received funding

Note: i.e. if a Branch ran 1 candidate out of 10 which didn't receive funding that branch would receive 4% of the total funding available.

- iv) 45% to Branch / Branches (in the case of multi candidate electorate were two Branches have candidates running) responsible for covering the costs of running in that electorate that raised the electoral funding, any excess will be held to support the next election involving that electorate(s), unless that electorate(s) is/are not being contested in which case the funds can be used to support any legitimate activity of the Association or relevant Branch or Branches.

- b) in a cash for receipt system

- i) a minimum of 45% to be made available to cover the direct costs of running in that electorate(s) that met the threshold for funding
- ii) the remainder to be used to cover shared costs associated with running that election campaign if allowed by law.

Note: The Association should endeavour to maximise its use of the funding from cash for receipt systems without putting the Association's financial future at risk. This risk may be taken on by Branches.

103. Contested electable positions

- 1) At times electable positions will be contested by members from multiple Branches. In the case of an electable position being contested by candidates from more than one Branch the following rules will be used decide which candidates will be endorsed and in what position:

Note: This is expected in the case of the top ballot position on a Federal Senate seat or State upper house seat, or in the case of a winnable single member electorate emerging.

- a) in the case of multi member upper house seats
 - i) by mutual agreement between the Branches
 - ii) by a ballot held by all members of the Association entitled to vote in accordance with sub-rule (2).
 - b) in the case of multi member lower house seat or local government wards
 - i) by mutual agreement between the Branches
 - ii) if only one Branch has a history of running candidates in that electorate that Branch can choose to have a successful preselected candidate(s) placed in the top position(s) on the ballot if applicable.
 - iii) by a ballot held by all members of the Association entitled to vote in accordance with sub-rule (2).
 - c) in the case of single member lower house seat or local government wards
 - i) by mutual agreement between the Branches
 - ii) if only one Branch has a history of running candidates in the contested electorate or ward that Branch can select a candidate for formal endorsement by the Association.
 - iii) by a ballot held by all members of the Association entitled to vote in accordance with sub-rule (2).
- 2) Where one or more Association candidates must be selected for a contested position, the election must be held as set out in Part 8-Division 1, by all the Members entitled to vote as per sub-rule (3).
 - 3) Association members entitled to vote for a contested position must meet the following criteria to be able to vote:
 - a) be a current Member of the Association
 - b) be registered to vote for the electorate or ward that is being contested i.e. is on the relevant electoral roll.
 - c) be a member of the Association for more than 1 year.

- 4) Voting, under sub-rule (2), to select candidates must take place either—
 - a) in a physical meeting;
 - b) by postal ballot; or
 - c) secure online voting system.

104. Elected representatives

- 1) Elected representatives have the right to re-contest their seat without having to face a preselection ballot unless they have been disendorsed in accordance with rule 106 or faced a successful no confidence motion in accordance with rule 106.
- 2) Elected representatives must retire as a member of Parliament or a municipal Councillor once they have served 9 consecutive years representing a single electorate.
- 3) Retirement takes effect at the end of the representative's current term of office.
- 4) Once retirement is triggered by sub-rule (2), the person affected may run for a seat or ward other than the one from which they are retiring.
- 5) Elected representatives are expected to work constructively with other elected representatives of the Association, and the Association itself to achieve the purposes of the Association.

Note: The Association believes that there should be a limit on the length of time served by any elected representatives to any parliament or local government.

105. Disendorsement of candidates or elected representatives

- 1) Candidates and elected representatives can be disendorsed by the Committee where they have—
 - a) been expelled as a Member of the Association as a result of disciplinary action taken by the Association;
 - b) engaged in past or current conduct which does not meet the Code of Conduct;
 - c) failed to meet their agreed campaign commitments where they have been endorsed for two elections; or
 - d) had a successful vote of no confidence moved against them by the Members of their electorate as covered in sub-rule (2).
- 2) Five or more Members who live within the electorate of an Association candidate or elected representative and have been Members for more than one year, may present a petition calling for a special meeting to be held at which all Members who have been members for more than one year and live within that electorate can vote to request the disendorsement of that candidate or elected representative.
- 3) The petition must be presented to the Committee.

- 4) On receipt of the petition, the Committee must hold a special meeting of all the Members who have been Members for longer than one year and live within the electorate to vote for or against a request for disendorsement no sooner than 7 days and no later than 21 days from the date of presentation of the petition.
- 5) At the special meeting—
 - a) the grounds for the vote of no confidence must be presented in both written form and can be read by a Member seeking the disendorsement of the candidate or elected representative; and
 - b) the candidate or elected representative who is the subject of the petition must be given the opportunity to present a statement in their defence.
 - c) The statement in defence may be read by the person who is the subject of the petition or by their nominated representative; or if no person is nominated then by the meeting facilitator or a person nominated by the meeting facilitator.
 - d) in both cases read statements should take no longer than 30 minutes each.
- 6) To succeed a no confidence motion must obtain at least a 60% majority of the eligible Members voting.
- 7) If a vote of no confidence is passed, the disendorsement process must then be handled as a disciplinary action in accordance with Part 3 Division 2 of these Rules.

106. Preferences given at external elections.

- 1) Preferences given to other political parties at an election through How to Vote cards or equivalent in general must be distributed in order of a candidates and / or party's alignment to the Association's or branches policies and platforms.
- 2) Preferences are decided in the first instance by the Branch who has selected the relevant candidate.
