

Jane Hansen Prize for History Advocacy - Entry form

The Jane Hansen Prize for History Advocacy was established in 2020 to recognise the efforts of a group or individual that has advocated for the value of history, the work of historians and/or the importance of an education in history.

The prize is named in honour of Ms Jane Hansen AO whose passion for history and its advocacy is widely acknowledged. Through the Hansen Little Foundation, which aims to create a legacy of significant and positive change that inspires and enables Australians, Ms Hansen has provided generous philanthropic support for history and historians in a number of organisations, including the History Council of Victoria.

* Required

1. Email *

2. Full name of nominee/s *

3. I/We agree to be nominated for the History Council of Victoria's Jane Hansen Prize for History Advocacy 2022. *

Check all that apply.

☐ Yes

Terms and conditions

The Jane Hansen Prize for History Advocacy will be awarded to a group or individual that has advocated – in a professional or volunteer capacity – for the value of history (of any society and/or period), the work of historians and/or the importance of an education in history.

The prize recognises either a specific activity or longer-term cumulative endeavours and will prioritise initiatives continued or commenced within the last three years.

The prize will consist of a cash payment of $500 and a certificate, presented at the HCV's Annual Lecture.

Winners will also be recognised with acknowledgement via the HCV's publications and social media, and year-long membership to the HCV Friends.

Applicants must be a resident of Victoria.

4. I agree to these terms and conditions *

Check all that apply.

☐ Yes

Contact details

Please include current contact details of nominee and nominator. The History Council of Victoria will store these details in accordance with our Privacy Policy and will use them only in relation to the Jane Hansen Prize for History Advocacy, they will not be publicised.

5. Email address of nominee *

6. Phone number of nominee *

7. Address of nominee *

8. Full name of nominator (if different from nominee)

9. Email address of nominator (if different from nominee)

10. Phone number of nominator (if different from nominee)

Advocacy summary

Tell us why you, or your nominee, should be recognised for your/their history advocacy.

This includes an opportunity to write a summary of the nominee's advocacy of history and an opportunity to attach relevant documents.

We will prioritise initiatives continued or commenced within the last three years, where the nominee has gone beyond routine expectations of their role to undertake this advocacy. We highly regard applications that can show evidence of history advocacy and highlight its impact, though this is not a requirement.

11. How has the nominee advocated for history? *

12. Why should the nominee be recognised for their history advocacy? *

13. Upload evidence of nominee's advocacy here

Files submitted:

14. Upload nominee's CV or career summary here

Files submitted:

15. Upload references or testimonials for nominee here

Files submitted:

16. Thank you for nominating for the History Council of Victoria's Jane Hansen Prize for History Advocacy. Applications close on 30 July 2022, a shortlist will be announced in early October and the winner will be announced at the History Council of Victoria's Annual Lecture during October.
-

This content is neither created nor endorsed by Google.

Google Forms