Bill Gallagher

For Horsham Township Council

Bill Gallagher is currently a member of Horsham Township Council and is running for re-election in 2021.

A thirty-five year resident of Horsham, Bill and wife Peggy have two children who attended school in the Hatboro-Horsham School District. He was a teacher at Girard College High School in Philadelphia for over forty four years. As a social studies teacher, he taught United States Government and knows the critical importance of local government in the everyday lives of our residents.

As a member of Horsham Township Council, bringing people, organizations and resources together to better serve our community will always be his major focus in improving the quality of life for all residents of Horsham Township.

Horsham has many challenges as it plans for the future development of the township and Bill brings important experience as a former real estate agent. He has also been a member of the Horsham Democratic Committee for over twenty years. He is very familiar with the many critical issues facing Horsham Township

Bill has also been involved in many programs that have assisted less fortunate members of the Horsham community. He has worked with so many great people and organizations in the Horsham community to provide food, clothing, financial assistance and other resources to our residents in need. Bill will continue to bring exactly that type of collaboration to tackle problems and meet challenges as a member of Horsham Township Council.
