I. INTRODUCTION

The Identity and Democracy Group in the EU-Parliament (ID) has decided to open the procedure for hiring a media/communications officer of French language, function group/ grade AST5, for its secretariat in Brussels.

The ID Group in the EU-Parliament is composed of national delegations from ten Member States. The Members are united by a commitment to national sovereignty, identity and freedom. The group's political objective is creating jobs and growth, increasing security, tackling illegal immigration, as well as making the EU less bureaucratic.

II. JOB DESCRIPTION

A Media Communication Assistant fulfils a supranational function within the ID Group Secretariat and assists Members in carrying out their duties particularly as regards information and communication activities. As Assistant of the French communication, press and social media team, the person will act as the responsible communications assistant of the French section of the ID group's communication team. The person ensures the dissemination of the political priorities of the ID Group to the French speaking media and the public.

Travel to Strasbourg during the plenary part sessions is part of the job.

The post of Media Communication Assistant in the secretariat of the ID Group requires great availability (for example frequency of meetings, irregular working hours), flexibility, judgement, a methodical approach, discretion, adaptability to varying workloads as well as the capacity for teamwork in an international environment. Suitable candidates must, amongst other things, be capable of grasping wide-ranging problems, be able to respond rapidly to changing circumstances and to communicate effectively.

Will notably be considered as an asset:

- The excellent ability to communicate between the Members of the ID Group and the French media and authorities;
- An excellent knowledge of the policies advocated by the ID Group and its national delegations/affiliated parties;
- The capacity to prepare press releases, notes and publications for the Members on subjects in their field of expertise, drafting documents for the media and organising and following up meetings with journalists and other interlocutors;
- The capacity to contribute in communication activities necessary for the smooth running of the Group.

Travel outside the place of work might be required.

III. CONDITIONS FOR ADMISSION

1. Job requirements:

- i) a level of post-secondary education attested by a diploma, ii) or a level of secondary education attested by a diploma giving access to post-secondary education and appropriate professional experience of at least 3 years, iii) or where justified in the interests of the service, professional training or professional experience of at least 8 years (These years of professional experience, will not be taken into account for the evaluation of the professional experience, required hereunder)
- at least 7 years of professional experience following acquisition of the qualification in the first indent;
