Sydney's Neo-Nazi Rally was disgraceful

The Neo-Nazi rally outside NSW Parliament House over the weekend was a disturbing act of racism and antisemitism.

These people want to divide us with hate. This behaviour has no place in our community and must never be normalised.

Australia is a nation built on multiculturalism, respect, and acceptance of all people, races, faiths, and backgrounds.

I will be seeking an explanation from the NSW Police Minister as to how this rally was able to proceed, and what measures are being taken to ensure such vile acts cannot happen again.

Australia is a big-hearted nation. Our strength lies in our diversity and our compassion for one another. We are better together.
