Substantive Code Editor

- HF 573 is the yearly substantive code editors bill

Section by Section Analysis

There are several major themes in this year's bill:

1. Corrections to Code section string citations.
2. Changing the words "herein", "hereinbefore", "aforesaid", "above", "hereinafter" to specific Code section or chapter citations.
3. Changes that match the amended provisions to related language elsewhere in the Code.
4. Corrections of inadvertent errors or omission made in past legislation.
5. Dividing long sentences into shorter sentences to make them easier to read.
6. Dividing long, single-paragraph Code sections into subsections to make them easier to read and use.
7. Repeals of obsolete provisions.
