Provisional Coaching Authorization

- Analysis reflects the strike after
- Makes it easier to obtain a transitional coaching authorization by striking the requirements that you must have a job offer and take a shortened course on the code of professional rights and responsibilities, practice, and ethics.
- Still must take mandatory reporter training, have a background check, as well as take concussion CPR, and AED training.
- Allows the transitional coaching authorization to convert if you take the requirements currently in Code or if you take the fundamentals of coaching course created by the National Federation of State High School Associations.

Section by Section Analysis

Section 1. Section 256.165(1)(b)

Strikes requirement that an applicant needs to provide verification of an offer of a coaching position prior to receiving a transitional coaching authorization.

Amended to say the BOEE shall issue a transitional coaching authorization to an applicant who satisfies all of the following requirements:

- Completes the child abuse mandatory reporter training.
- Completes concussion training.
- Complies with background check investigation requirements.
- Completes CPR training.
- Completes AED training.

The authorization shall expire one year after the date of issuance and shall not be renewed.

The individual who holds the transitional authorization may convert to a coaching authorization if they do any of the following:

- Competes requirements established in "a".
- Successfully completes the fundamentals of coaching course created by national federation of state high school associations.

Section 2. Applicability

Applies to transitional coaching authorizations issued by the BOEE on or after July 1, 2027.
