Purpose

JOCO Citizens for Responsible Government (CRG) is a nonpartisan civic organization that promotes, encourages, and advocates for good local governance, and works to educate the citizenry and those who seek and hold public office in the principles and practices of good governance.

Mission

CRG seeks to develop and implement a broad, long-term approach for engaging citizens and our elected and appointed government officials in an ongoing dialogue about good governance.

Vision

Local governmental institutions in Josephine County are to serve the needs and interests of the entire community through established best practices of good governance. To assure good governance, leaders should rely on factual information, transparency and ethical behavior while responding to the rule of law.
