Gifts in Memory

Honour someone special with a gift that creates hope

A gift in memory is a meaningful way to honour someone you love. By donating in their name, you help carry forward their values, compassion, and commitment to justice.

A gift in memory can support the ongoing work of JRI to undertake:

- Community led reform initiatives.
- Research and advocacy that drives systemic change.
- Programs to build and support the capacity of people impacted by the justice system.
- Long term reform efforts that create safer, more compassionate communities.

We can also acknowledge your gift in memory on a special page on our website, if you wish. Please ensure to reach out to National Operations Manager, Louise Clarke to inform her of your gift: louise@jri.org.au

The Justice Reform Initiative respectfully acknowledges and supports the current and longstanding efforts of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to reduce the numbers of First Nations people incarcerated in Australia and, importantly, the leadership role which First-Nations-led organisations continue to play on this issue.

The Justice Reform Initiative is backed by eminent patrons, including former Governors-General Dame Quentin Bryce AD CVO and Sir William Deane AC KBE as patrons-in-chief. A full list of patrons is available on our website.

The Justice Reform Initiative is also supported by hundreds of organisations who are also working to reduce incarceration. A list of supporter organisations is available on our website.
