British Kebab Awards 7th Year

The British kebab industry contributes over £2.8 billion annually to the British economy, providing around 200,000 jobs across restaurants, suppliers and the wider food industry in the UK.

Kebabs have become a Great British institution. And they're big business, with an estimated 1.3m kebabs sold every day in the UK. Over 20,000 kebab outlets in the UK sell around 2,500 tonnes of lamb and chicken doner a week. There are also around 200 doner kebab manufacturers in the UK, with a turnover in excess of £750m.

The British Kebab Awards (2019), now in its seventh year, have received thousands of nominations from across the UK. Nominations in 16 categories have been meticulously assessed for the final shortlist. More and more kebab businesses are being recognised for their good food and hard work.

The British Kebab Awards, founded by the Centre for Turkey Studies (www.ceftus.org), aims to shed light on this important industry, to recognise the cultural and economic contributions that the industry's various restaurants, suppliers and workers make to the UK. The British Kebab Awards honour the dedication, hard work and commitment of individuals in the kebab industry who have helped the growing passion for kebabs spread throughout the UK. It is thanks to them that the kebab industry is thriving today.

The awards aim to assess the kebab industry's contribution to the UK. We have worked towards continually measuring the size of the market while also analysing the economic and social impacts that the industry has on the UK. The aim of the awards is to highlight and acknowledge the best of the kebab industry from all over Britain, including local producers, restaurants, chefs, restaurateurs, and takeaways.

Our judging panel is comprised of experts from the industry and members of parliament, and our judges are a vital component of the validity and robustness of the results. Our judges take a number of key aspects into consideration – rewarding great avours, hygiene rating, high quality ingredients, value for money and customer service.

BRITISH
AWARDS

Ibrahim Dogus

Founder and Director of Centre for Turkey Studies and British Kebab Awards

In just seven short years, the British Kebab Awards has grown into a major part of the culinary calendar.

It is our chance to celebrate our industry, recognise the superstar chefs, the energetic entrepreneurs, and to remember all the people working hard on the high street, or on a delivery bike, working as kitchen porters, or waiters, or in a kebab van, often late at night.

Our industry includes Kurds, Turks, Greeks, Lebanese, Armenians, plus many many other communities, some old, some new. Many come from places of violence, repression and war. Where tensions between peoples divides, our love of food unites.

As well as chefs, owners, waiters, suppliers and the other people who make the magic of kebabs happen night after night, we celebrate the people with a love of good food. The visionaries who build a business. The creative geniuses who deliver hot meals in the most difficult of environments. We recognise the contribution of immigrants to our national life. Kurds, Turks, Cypriots, Lebanese, Armenians, and others besides. Some have been here for generations; others are still getting used to the cold.

Immigrants create wealth; we create jobs; we add to the colour and vibrancy of our towns and cities, so let's celebrate, not denigrate, immigrants and their families. As we head towards Brexit, our economy will need more start-ups, more independent businesses, more SMEs, and the kebab industry is a massive net contributor to the economy.

But the fact is that without people leaving their homes and starting a new life in the UK, our culture and society would be poorer, in every respect. We need to show our solidarity with minority communities and with immigrants. So a special plea to politicians and the journalists – let's celebrate the people who come here from across the globe and help to build a better Britain.

Immigrants create wealth; we create jobs; we add to the colour and vibrancy of our towns and cities, so let's celebrate, not denigrate, immigrants and their families. As we head towards Brexit, our economy will need more start-ups, more independent businesses, more SMEs, and the kebab industry is a massive net contributor to the economy.

Brexit must not be allowed to leave a damaging legacy to our catering industry, and to small and medium enterprises. That is not a price worth paying. We've launched a new initiative since last year, the British Takeaway Campaign.

I'm proud to be the first Chair of the British Takeaway Campaign – an industry-wide group that champions the economic, social and cultural contributions of the takeaway sector. The takeaway sector contributes around £9.4 billion to the UK economy each year – 0.5% of economic growth – and employs 231,000 people across the UK.

Our mission is to ensure its continued growth. That's why we are working hard to ensure takeaways – not just kebab shops but also curry houses, fish and chips shops, Chinese takeaways and pizza parlours – can access the skills they need from within the EU and beyond – and through developing high-quality vocational training.

Last year we also launched National Kebab Week. The week that has 14th Feb (Valentine's day) will be the National Kebab Week from now on. Another great chance to highlight what we do.

The kebab is perfect end to a long evening. Or a daytime treat when you're hard at work. The perfect combination of spice, colour, texture and flavour, at a price every Briton can afford. A welcoming light on an otherwise darkened high street. The kebab shop is the light that never goes out.

We are proud of what we do, and tonight we celebrate the stars of our industry.

Bon appetit!

THE PRIME MINISTER

I am pleased to provide a message for this year's British Kebab Awards.

We believe in the UK food and drink sector, and think that it makes an important contribution to growth in the UK economy. This includes the restaurants, takeaway food outlets and the suppliers that provide their ingredients.

The kebab industry is thriving, and its popularity is owed in no small part to the talented restaurateurs and chefs who are being nominated for and receiving awards this year.

I would like to congratulate all the winners and nominees and wish you all the best for another year of success.

Rt Hon Jeremy Corbyn

Leader of the Labour Party and MP for Islington North

“I am delighted to support this year’s British Kebab Awards, now an established annual event. The British Kebab industry is continuing to grow each year and contributes well over £2.8 billion annually to the British economy, creating jobs and playing a vital role in our communities in every corner of the country. From takeaway to fine dining, Kebabs are a firm favourite and an established part of our national cuisine.

The British Kebab Industry has been built up by the tremendous efforts of SMEs and their teams who have worked incredibly hard to get where they are today. The British Kebab Awards have become an important part of our food awards in Britain, recognising the hard work of our restaurateurs and chefs. I send my very best wishes for this year’s award ceremony - my particular congratulations to all the award winners. And I wish you all another superb year ahead.”

Graham Corfield

UK Managing Director, Just Eat

“We are so proud to once again be sponsoring the 7th British Kebab Awards.

Last year alone three kebabs were ordered every second through Just Eat. The enormous popularity of shishes, shawarmas, donners and koftas reflect the kebab industry’s unwavering popularity and its significant contribution to the UK economy.

We know that running a small, independent restaurant business is not without its challenges. From difficulties in recruiting skilled chefs, to food price inflation and increasing business rates - restaurants are facing challenges on many fronts.

At Just Eat, we want to ensure that takeaway restaurants - especially Turkish and kebab restaurants which contribute so much to British culture - don’t just survive, but thrive. That’s why we continue to play a vital role supporting the British Takeaway Campaign, bringing together the whole takeaway sector to provide a unified voice in tackling these challenges head on.

We are campaigning to ensure our sector has access to the right skills be it through immigration or nurturing home grown talent. We are also actively supporting takeaways to offer smaller sized portions, use healthier cooking methods, and offer consumers healthier choices whether they are eating out or ordering in.

It’s also why Just Eat has launched a food hygiene improvement programme, investing £1m to help improve hygiene standards across the entire takeaway sector. We will be providing assistance to restaurants on our platform with a Food Hygiene Rating of less than two with a package of support. Any zero-rated restaurant which fails to improve its rating will then be removed from our platform, and all restaurants seeking to join Just Eat now requires a rating of three or above. We have also committed to displaying the Food Hygiene Rating for each of our restaurants in the UK directly on our app and online later this year.

This is a big step forward for the industry and will enable consumers to make informed choices and support takeaway restaurants to prosper.

On behalf of Just Eat, I would like to congratulate both Ibrahim for making the British Kebab Awards a huge success, and each and every one of the finalists here tonight on their nomination. It’s hugely important that we continue to champion and celebrate all that is great about the kebab sector.

Here’s to a great evening and another year of continued success for this fantastic industry.”

TAKEAWAY TOOLKIT

OUR MISSION

We all have an important role to play in helping to tackle obesity. That includes the food sector as well as central and local government, consumers, parents and schools. The British Takeaway Campaign is committed to playing its part to support takeaway restaurants in taking simple steps to help customers make healthier choices.

THE TOOLKIT

The takeaway sector is made up of small, independent restaurants that provide an incredibly diverse range of cuisines. The BTC is working with its members to encourage all takeaway restaurants to adopt four simple, practical steps, which, taken together, can have a significant overall impact, helping customers make the decisions which are right for them whether they are eating out or ordering in.

IF YOU NEED FURTHER SUPPORT OR GUIDANCE FROM THE BTC OR ANY OF OUR MEMBERS WHO REPRESENT SPECIFIC CUISINES THEN PLEASE CONTACT BTC@NEWINGTONCOMMS.CO.UK

FOUR PRACTICAL STEPS TO HEALTHIER CHOICES

OFFER SMALLER PORTION SIZES

Offering smaller portions, including for foods such as curries, kebabs, sushi and stir fries, will support customers to make choices which are right for them and their families – especially when they are made visible through menu listings and/or websites.

MAKE SURE WATER AND LOW-SUGAR DRINKS ARE AVAILABLE

Offering water, low or zero-sugar drinks or no added sugar fruit juices, whilst also refilling reusable bottles with tap water, can support customers to choose low-sugar drink options.

NO ADDED SALT AFTER COOKING

Not adding salt after cooking will reduce the level of salt in food served – a simple step that can make a positive difference for customers.

USE HEALTHIER COOKING METHODS AND INGREDIENTS

Using alternative cooking methods such as air-frying, grilling and frying in the optimum conditions, whilst reviewing menus to ensure fruit, vegetables and wholemeal varieties are included, will help to promote healthy eating. Takeaway restaurants should use cooking oil that contains the least amount of saturated fat possible, with no artificial trans fats.

TURKNAZ

— TURKISH CUISINE —

Turknaz Restaurant is situated in the heart of a seaside town named 'Whitley Bay' accompanied with beautiful scenic sea views of the North East Coast of England.

Our Restaurant is a family run business with the father being Kudret Yilmaz the head chef and Anthony Yilmaz being the Owner.

As a family, we had a vision insight to bring the taste of Turkey to Whitley Bay through authentic tasty Turkish cuisine, friendly welcoming dining and 5 star a la carte service. Through hard work, passion, determination and the support of our beautiful home town community in Whitley Bay; our vision of Turknaz was turned into reality. We won best Turkish restaurant Regional 2018 and after receiving this award, we were so overwhelmed and humbled from the endeavoring support that our customers have shown towards us in the past 3 years to make this all possible.

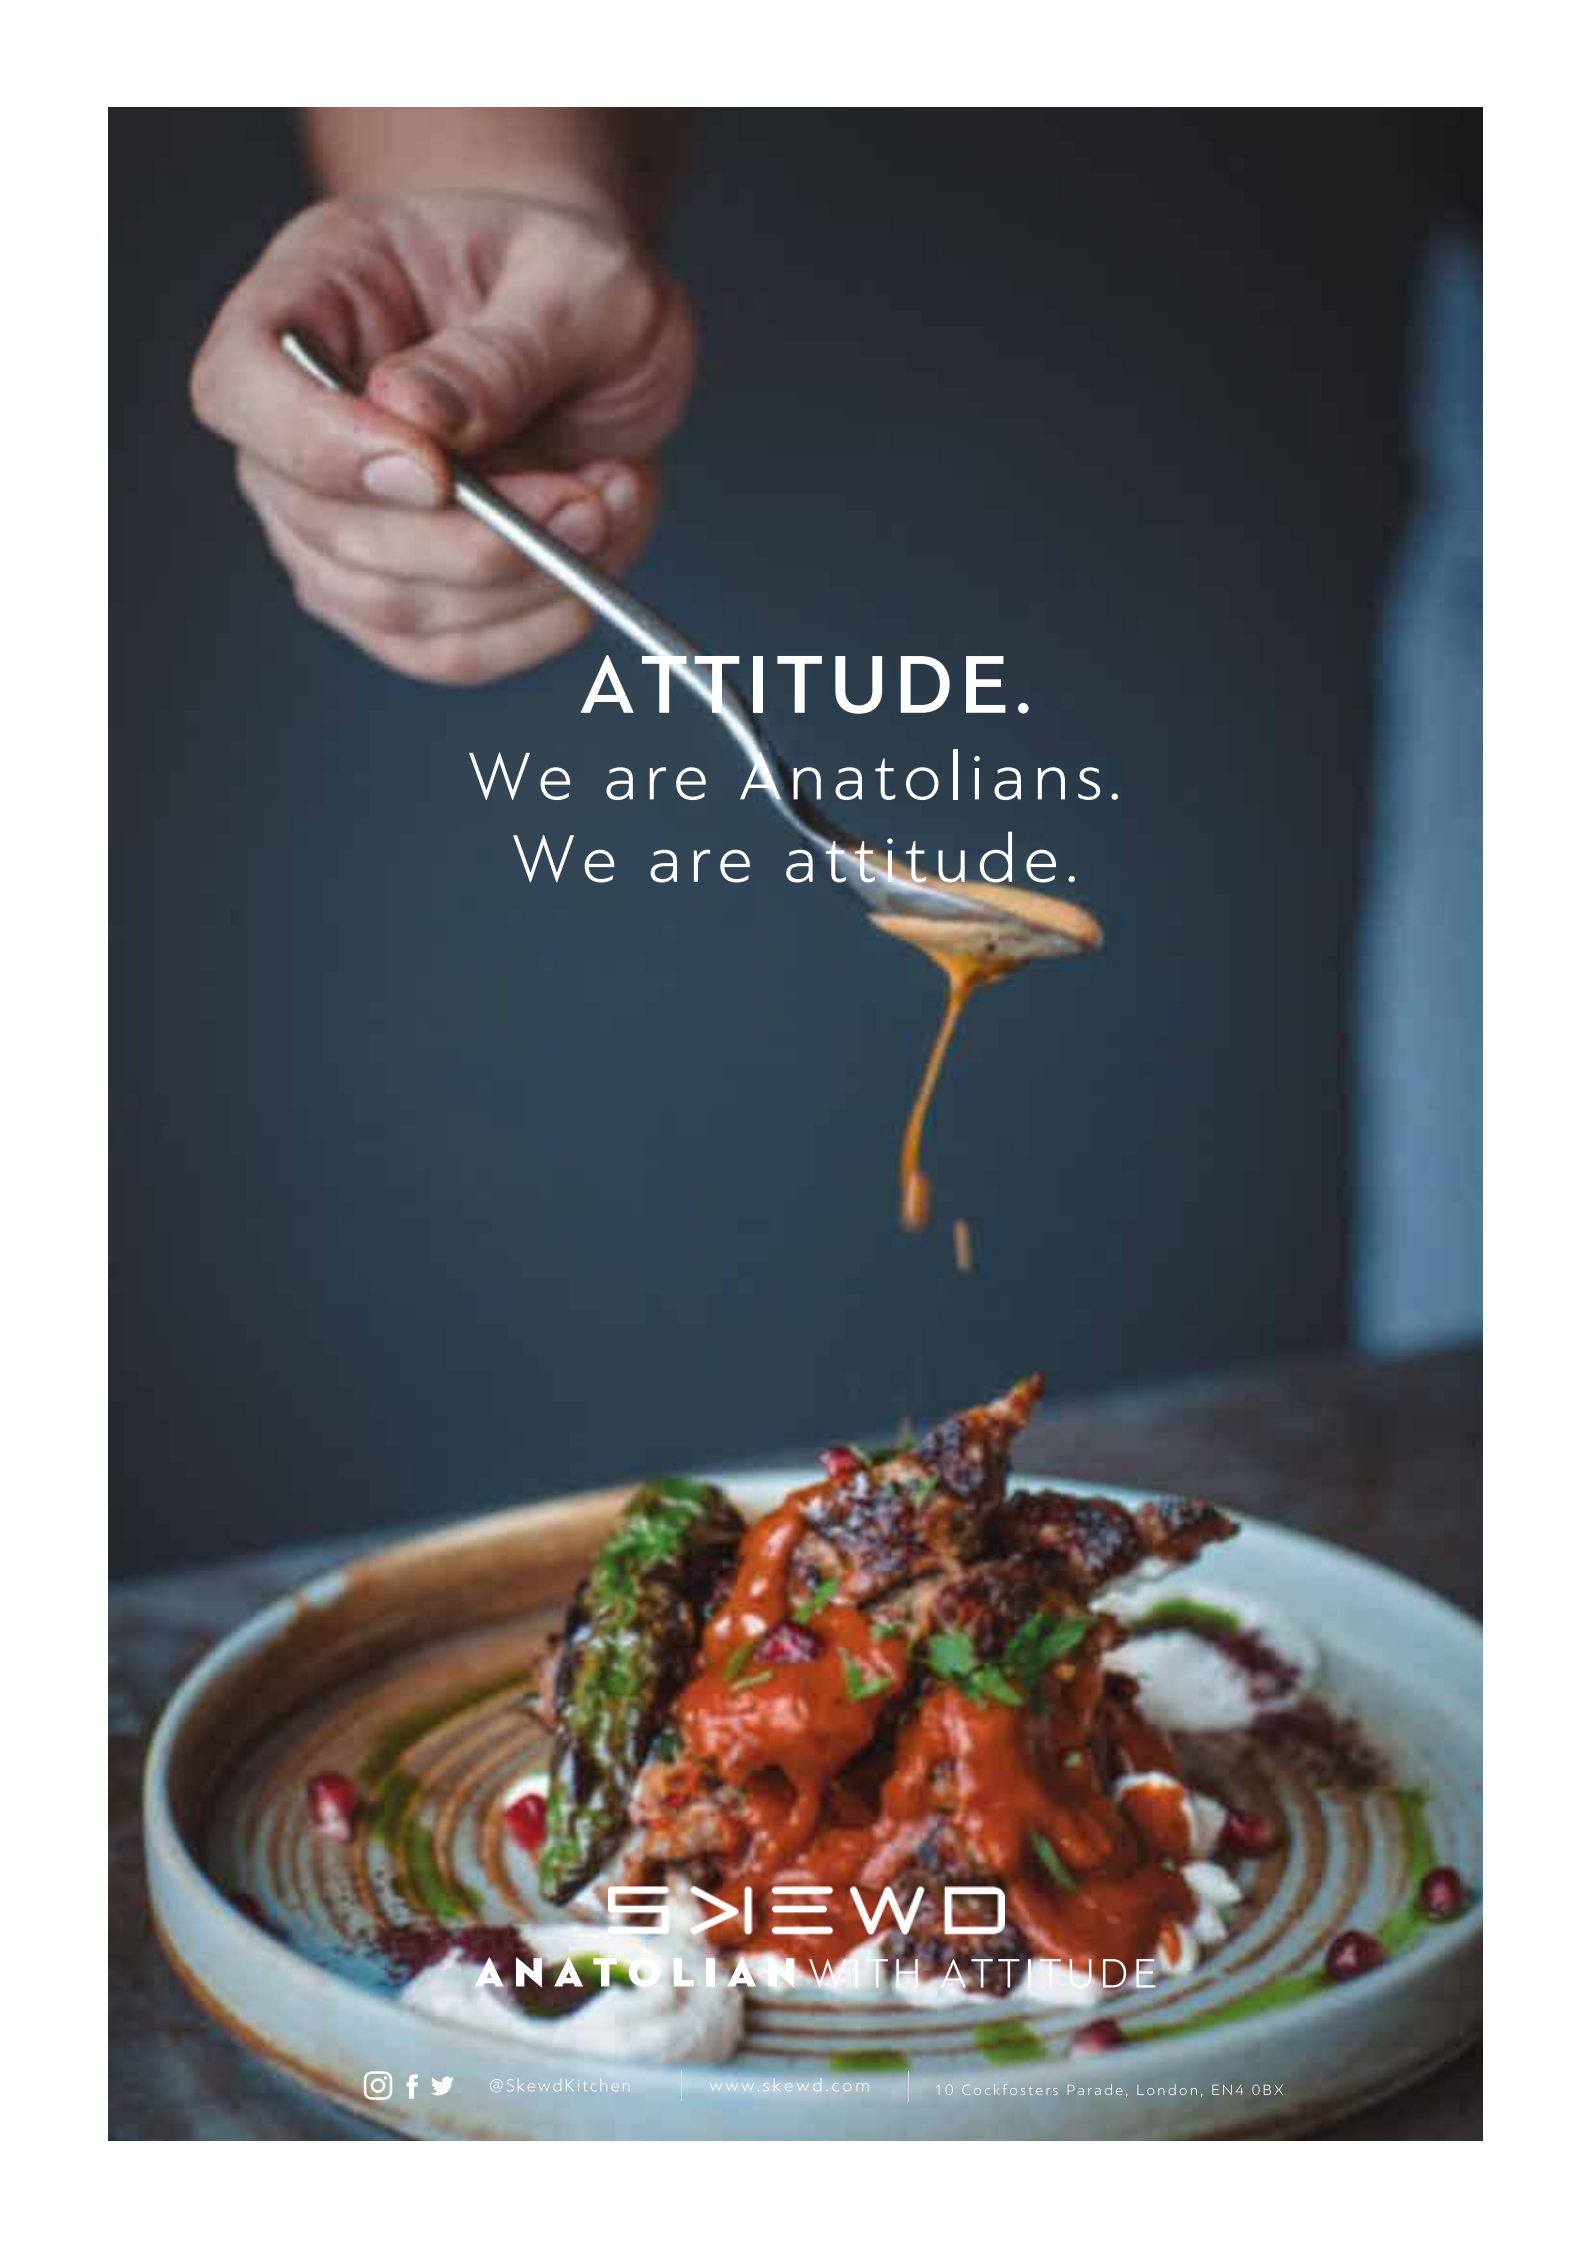

As a family, we have a passion for Turknaz and the authentic, fresh, organic food we serve daily. We believe our passion, dedication and hard work is truly reflected in the taste and presentation of our Turkish cuisine and we will continue to do so in the healthiest and tastiest way possible... all at the hands of our head chef Kudret Yilmaz.

This year, we have been nominated for three categories being: Best Chef, Best Kebab Restaurant Regional and Best Value Restaurant.

We are so grateful to be nominated for each of these awards and we want to thank each of those that have nominated us and made this experience possible for us. We are very excited and looking forward to what the future holds at Turknaz; big plans are being made for 2019.

ATTITUDE.
