

"I fear having to go 'back into the closet' due to the palliative care policy and procedures of an organisation. The right to a respectful death in an environment that encapsulates the life I've lived is very important to me, as a part of my palliative and end-of-life care."*

* LGBTIQ+ Health Australia & Australian College of Applied Professions (2021). National survey of healthcare professionals and LGBTIQ+ people about barriers and enablers to palliative care for LGBTIQ+ people.

Be part of the solution

lgbtiqhealth.org.au

FREE eLearning on delivering LGBTIQ+ inclusive palliative care.

- Lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex and queer (LGBTIQ+) communities and their specific healthcare needs
- End-of-life concerns and barriers to palliative care for LGBTIQ+ people
- How to have inclusive end-of-life conversations
- Strategies to support loved ones
- How to create welcoming and inclusive environments

RACGP

CPD Approved
Activity

