

A national palliative care survey* of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex and queer (LGBTIQ+) people found that...

94%

of respondents were concerned that some institutional healthcare settings are not inclusive or supportive of LGBTIQ+ people.

55%

of respondents were concerned they would encounter discrimination by health professionals in relation to being LGBTIQ+.

Be part of the solution

FREE eLearning on delivering LGBTIQ+ inclusive palliative care.

