From Grade 8B

An illustration on the left side of the slide shows several hands holding megaphones. The hands are colored blue, purple, and pink, and the megaphones are also in these colors. They are arranged in a vertical line, with the top one being blue and the bottom ones being purple and pink. The background is a light beige color with a pattern of small pink dots.

Grade 10 English says...

Thank you for your courage.

You are an amazing person!

Thank you, Jill, for being a huge
