

of manufacturing firms for defense, medical, and government contracts across the United States. My straight-forward approach has earned me the reputation as a strong analytical leader with my clients and business associates. As Mayor, I will take my experiences to bring new businesses to Annapolis and build strong mentorship programs. The more jobs within the city that pay a living wage, the stronger Annapolis becomes. I am running to be the next mayor of Annapolis because of the love and passion I have for this place we all call home.

MODERATOR

Tanya Millner, Ed.D.

Dr. Millner currently serves as Provost and Vice President of Learning at Anne Arundel Community College (AACC), where she provides strategic leadership across the institution's five schools of study. Her role encompasses faculty development, curriculum

Jared Littmann (Dem)

Website: jaredforannapolis.com

Jared Littmann is a proven leader in our community, from his experience and education as a business owner, Alderman (D-Ward 5), engineer, lawyer, corporate board member, youth sports coach, volunteer leadership roles on committees and task forces. These roles have created a unique breadth of experiences that have allowed him to demonstrate his strong problem solving and communication skills which are required to run a city government that is responsive to the needs of its citizens, businesses, and visitors. Jared is passionate about good government and leading with integrity, accountability, and addressing the most concerning issues facing the City.

Bobby O'Shea (Rep)

Website: boboshea.com

My name is Bobby O'Shea, and I am seeking your vote for the Mayor of Annapolis in the November 2025 election.

I grew up in Canandaigua, a small waterfront town in upstate New York. In 2000, I chose Annapolis as my home because of its beauty, diverse history, and the Chesapeake Bay. My son, Trey, and I reside in Murray Hill. The 'man' in charge of our home is Togo, our faithful dog. My focus as Mayor of Annapolis will be Public Safety, our Streets, Sidewalks and Parks, and reductions in Taxes and Fees.

I was a member of the Board of Trustees for the Naval Academy Primary School. I understand the key to success is a good education.

For over 40 years, I have advised, consulted, and negotiated on behalf
